Ridgway Suggests Armistice Conference In Broadcast To Red Commander In Korea

Congress Extends Controls But Bans Rollback Of Prices

Washington (AP) — Congress rushed through a bill extending the nation's economic controls for 31 days yesterday, but slapped an absolute ban on price rollbacks and most new price ceilings.

Final passage came less than 36 hours before all controls were due to expire at midnight tonight.

If President Truman signs the bill, a vast series of price rollbacks already ordered will have to be suspended.

The Office of Price Stabilization (OPS) estimated last night the ban on rollbacks would cost consumers about $5,000,000,000. Rollback orders affecting machinery, shoes, cotton textiles, and many other lines of manufactured goods were scheduled to go into effect July 2.

Several other orders were in the mill and would have been issued next month, OPS officials said.

Congress worked at top speed to ram through the eleventh hour extension.

The House initiated the stop-gap bill, adopting it on a voice vote after a roll call vote of 232 to 159 added a "status quo" amendment prohibiting all rollbacks and any new ceilings except for farm products which might reach parity price levels during the month.

A messenger rushed the emergency legislation to the Senate, where it was immediately approved by the Senate Banking committee and sent to the floor. Senate approval came within two hours of House passage.

There was little doubt that the President would sign the bill in order to keep his anti-inflation program alive, even on a restricted basis, until Congress completes work on a comprehensive new law.

There was no debate on the bill in the Senate. It sailed through on a voice vote with only a sprinkling of "noes."

The Senate passed a comprehensive new controls bill shortly before 4 a.m. yesterday, but the House ignored it to concentrate on the temporary extension measure.

House leaders decided there was not enough time left to work out a complete new controls law.

The Senate's general bill falls far short of giving the President the additional control powers he has urgently requested. Moreover, it takes away some of the administration's existing powers.

OPS jammed through a rollback order on aluminum scrap late yesterday, setting dollars and cents ceilings 30 to 50 percent below prevailing market prices.

Price Director Michael V. DiSalle signed the order a few minutes after Congress voted its rollback ban for July. OPS estimated the reduction would mean a multi-million-dollar saving to taxpayers, since aluminum is widely used in defense production.

Administration forces in the House put up some opposition to the anti-rollback provision, but they seemed to be holding their fire until the Senate bill comes before the House next week.

The Senate bill, passed by a vote of 71 to 10 after 16 hours of continuous debate, extends controls for eight months. Mr. Truman wanted a two-year extension.

The House vote on the no-rollback amendment found 97 Democrats and 135 Republicans supporting it, with 108 Democrats, 50 Republicans and one independent opposing it.

Eight Killed In Crash Of Navy Bomber

Key West, Fla. (AP) — A Navy patrol bomber crashed while taking off on a training flight yesterday and killed eight of the nine men on board.

The lone survivor suffered only a broken leg but could not be questioned immediately because of shock.

A Navy chief petty officer, S. Kitching, reached inside the wreckage and rescued a second han who died of injuries after reaching the hospital.

All bodies were recovered. Names were withheld pending notification of next of kin.

Three officers and six enlisted men were aboard the craft, a twin-engined PBM. The wreckage lay in 12 feet of water, with a part protruding above surface. Kitching and two sailors, Carl Bartlett and Eddie Vehnder, watched the takeoff from the naval seaplane base boathouse.

"She was clear of the water when the left wing suddenly went high and the plane cartwheeled," said Kitching. "We yelled 'crash' and got under way in two boats."

At the crash scene half a mile from the boat house, Bartlett's boat picked up the one man in sight—the only survivor—and sped him to shore.

Sergeant Fined In Fatal Beating

Washington (AP)—M/Sgt. Stanley Szary of Pittsburgh, was fined $100 yesterday in district court for manslaughter in the fatal beating of his wife here last February.

In imposing the fine on Szary, who is 35 and attached to Bolling Air Force base here, Judge Henry Schweinhaut said he did not think Szary should receive a jail sentence.

Szary's wife, Wilma, was beaten in their home here. The court was informed they had been drinking and Szary could recall no details of the beating. Schweinhaut said he was told Szary had a fine military record.

Szary had been indicted on a second degree murder charge but was allowed to plead to the lesser charge of manslaughter upon recommendation of an assistant U.S. attorney.

He has three small children.

Bodies Of Boys Found In Pond

Brookville (AP) —It was pretty hot working on the farm all day. So John Songer, 16, and Donald Shippen, 18, both of Brookville, decided to go for a swim in the farm pond of the older boy's uncle, Raymond Wilson.

When the boys did not return home Thursday night Wilson called the Brookville fire department. Wilson directed the firemen to the pond where Wilson said he accompanied the youths earlier before going back to the farm house. Firemen recovered the bodies of the two boys in about six feet of water.

Rice Crop Saved By Hard Rains

New Orleans (AP)— South Louisiana rice farmers gleefully watched lowering skies shower down rain yesterday and hoped there would be enough of it to save their $40,000,000 crop.

The rains, which began intermittently Thursday, continued throughout the night and began again yesterday. More than three inches fell in some spots, forming the first puddles of water farmers had seen since April 1.

Iranian Reds Demonstrate Against Truman Pleas For Moderation Of Grave Oil Crisis

Tehran, Iran (AP)—Red demonstrators denounced American appeals for moderation in the British-Iranian oil crisis yesterday and shouted "death to Truman," "death to Grady."

The efforts of Americans to solve the nationalization dispute were condemned by speakers before a pro-Communist crowd estimated at 10,000 in Parliament square as "the blackest, most disgusting interference in our history."

Both President Truman and Ambassador Henry F. Grady have urged a fresh try at negotiation to assure the continued flow of Iranian oil to the west. Time for fresh talks may be given by a move of the British-owned Anglo-Iranian Oil Co. yesterday to cut down its produtcion, which has been rapidly filling the last of its storage tanks in Abadan.

Iranian police made no effort to stop the demonstration, conducted by a Communist front called "the national society to fight imperialistic oil companies." Similar demonstrations, mainly aimed against the British, have been held in the past here on Friday, the Moslem Sabbath.

A resolution denounced the International Court of Justice at the Hague, the United Nations-backed tribunal which is hearing today Britain's demand for an injunction to prevent Iran from doing anything to worsen the dispute. The resolution said the court "is interfering in the nation's local affairs."

The Iranian government telegraphed the Hague yesterday it rejects the British petition and wishes the court to declare the dispute is not within the court's jurisdiction.

Eleven judges, including Green H. Hackworth of the United States, met privately at the Hague to consider the petition. Attorney General Sir Frank Soskice is to argue Britain's case. Iran's minister to the Hague, Hossein Navab, announced a three-man Iranian commission was flying from Tehran with a copy of the Iranian appeal. Navab said he did not know whether they would appear at the hearing.

A spokesman for Britain's Tehran embassy implied the threatened withdrawal of British technicians, who have spurned a bid to get on the Iranian national oil payroll, may be delayed a month.

NPA To Lift Ban On Spare Auto Tires

Washington (AP) — The National Production authority yesterday announced it probably will lift its ban on spare tires for new cars by September 1 "and perhaps sooner."

NPA said the reason is the sharp cut in passenger car production starting July 1—which means fewer tires will be needed by auto manufacturers.

Date of the restoration can not be fixed, the agency said, until completion of a study of prospective rubber supply in the July-through-September quarter.

Sale of new cars equipped with a fifth tire was forbidden on April 1, to divert rubber into tires for trucks, buses and tractors. The ban aroused protests from motorists, who had to pay more for the tire, when bought separately, than if it had been original equipment.

Gambling Probe In City's Hands

Harrisburg (AP)—Col. C. M. Wilhelm, State police commissioner, yesterday closed the door on an investigation of charges of gambling in Oil City.

"It's a matter for local authorities, strictly," Wilhelm told a reporter. "We are not going in there over the local people's heads and that's all there is to it."

Wilhelm's statement grew out of a request by an Oil City minister, Rev. H. C. Stuart, several months ago to Gov. John S. Fine.

To Meet Deadline

Harrisburg (AP) — The 67-mile western extension of the Pennsylvania turnpike from Irwin to the Ohio border will be completed on schedulde in October, the Turnpike commission said yesterday.

Red Buildup Is Ominous, Says Official

Washington (AP) — Secretary of Defense Marshall said yesterday that the Communist world is staging a "rather ominous" buildup of its military strength.

As a vital part of the American effort to match this buildup, Marshall said, the nation must expect to spend at least $6,300,000,000 a year in each of the next three years—a total of almost $19,000,000,000—on military aid to its Allies.

Marshall expressed the opinion this will have to be done no matter how the Korean cease-fire negotiations result. Apart from "the tragedy of the casualties," he told the House Foreign Affairs committee, Korea is only one incident in the world picture, and:

"The world picture requires us to continue building up our strength and in some ways to increase it."

Marshall testified in favor of the administration's program of $8,450,000,00 in foreign military and economic aid during the fiscal year beginning tomorrow.

Of this sum, $6,300,000,000 is earmarked for military aid alone, most of it to Western Europe. Secretary of State Acheon tetified Thursday that economic aid, too, must be continued for two or three years.

Government To Investigate

Philadelphia (AP)—The Justice department yesterday told the University of Pennsylvania it has ordered a sweeping investigation of televising college football games.

At the same time, a dpeartment spokesman made it clear that the government has not approved the National Collegiate Athletic Association plan of limiting football TV.

Kutztown Plans Folk Festival

Kuztown, (AP) — Folk culture of southeastern Pennsylvania will be on display when the second annual Pennsylvania Dutch folk festival gets under way at the Kutztown fairgrounds July 4 to 8, inclusive.

The festival is sponsored by folklore center, Franklin and Marshall College, under the direction of Dr. Alfred L. Shoemaker, head of the department of American folklore.

The keystone of the folk culture in the Pennsylvania Dutch country is good cooking, and this the folk festival will highlight.

Folk hymns of Pennsylvania's plain people, arts, crafts, myths of the Dutch, sports, and games and many other traditions will be visibly displayed.

Thai Marines Kidnap Prime Minister

Manila, Saturday (AP)— Premier Pibulsonggram, seized by rebelling Navy forces in Bangkok, was reported today to have broadcast a plea for a cease-fire in street fighting in the Thailand capital. He was reported to be held prisoner aboard a warship in Bangkok harbor.

Washington (AP) — The American embassy at Bangkok wired the State department yesterday that Prime Minister Plaek Pibulsonggram of Thailand (Siam) was taken captive there by a Thai Marine unit.

The message said that the Prime Minister was "seized" during a ceremony in connection with the transfer to the Thai government of the U. S. dredge Manhattan at the royal landing in Bangkok.

Shortly afterward, gunfire was heard in the northern part of the city, the embassy said.

It added there was no report of molestation of Americans.

No details of what happened to the prime minister were given.

The State department announced the development last night and added:

"The U. S. government is deeply concerned for the welfare of the prime minister. The significance of this development is not yet apparent and the U. S. government awaits further details."

Thailand's premier has espoused an anti-Communist policy and recently praised the United Nations stand in Korea. But for the U.N. action, he said, his tiny kingdom and the surrounding countries might have fallen into the clutches of the Chinese Communists.

A dispatch from Associated Press Correspondent Fred Hampson in Hong Kong last February 20 said suspicion was growing there that a Communist coup d'etat was brewing against the Thailand government.

Hampson wrote that former Premier Pridi Phanaomyong, who headed the U. S.-sponsored underground in Thailand during World War Two, was being connected by rumor with the talk of a coup d'etat.

Pridi fled the country in 1947 when the present premier took over the government in an actual coup d'etat. Hampson's dispatch said Pridi has been reported secretly rallying his followers inside Thailand.

Communist China has accused the Thai government in its propaganda broadcasts of "large scale persecution" of 3,000,000 Chinese in that country.

Thailand's former king, Ananda Mahidol, was assassinated in the royal palace at Bangkok in 1946.

The present prime minister of the country collaborated with the Japanese war machine in World War Two, opening the way for the Japanese to sweep down the Malayan peninsula.

Removed from power after the war, he came back to head the government in 1947 after a bloodless coup.

U. N. Calls Upon Reds To Attend Peace Meeting

Tokyo, Saturday (AP) — Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway today called on the Communist commander in Korea to name a representative to attend an armistice conference.

The supreme United Nations commander broadcast his message from Tokyo at 8 a.m. (6 p.m. Friday, EDT).

It proposed that the meeting, which might end more than a year of bloody conflict, be held on a Danish hospital ship, the Jutlandia.

The site would be the harbor at Wonsan, Red-held port off the Korean east coast. Wonsan itself has been reduced to ruin by ceaseless Allied naval bombardment.

Ridgway addressed his message simply to "commander in chief, Communist forces in Korea." The Korean commander-in-chief and premier is Kim Il Sung. The Chinese field commander is Gen. Peng Teh-Huai.

Gen. Matthew Ridgway

"As commander-in-chief of the United Nations command," Ridgway's broadcast said, "I have been instructed to communicate to you the following:

"I am informed that you may wish a meeting to discuss an armistice providing for the cessation of hostilities and all acts of armed force in Korea, with adequate guarantees for the maintenance of such armistice.

"Upon receipt of word from you that such a meeting is desired, I shall be prepared to name my representative. I would also at that time suggest a date at which he could meet with your representative. I propose that such a meeting could take place aboard a Danish hospital ship in Wonsan harbor."

There was speculation at U.S. Eighth Army headquarters that Lt. Gen. James A. Van Fleet, Eighth Army commander, would be the U.N. representative.

Thus Ridgway checked squarely to the Communists the next move to halt he war that began June 25, 1950, with the invasion of the Republic of South Korea by Communist North Koreans.

The U. S. government yesterday sent general instructions to Ridgway on negotiations for the cease-fire. Contents were not disclosed.

In Washington it was reported that all the Allies — presumably excepting the Republic of Korea —had agreed to the step. South Korea officially is opposed to any cease-fire around the 38th parallel, old boundary line between North and South Korea.

Russia set the ball rolling last Saturday by suggesting a conference to end the fighting. Jacob Malik, Soviet delegate to the United Nations, made the proposal in New York.

Wonsan, the proposed site of a conference, is on the northeast Korean coast. It is about 80 miles north of the 38th parallel.

The harbor was the scene of an Allied landing last fall in the drive to the northern boundary of North Korea.

When the Allies were forced to withdraw because of Chinese Communist intervention in the war, the Allies began shelling and bombing the port. Allied warships have hammered Wonsan targets for 134 consecutive days through yesterday. It is a funnel point for supplies from Manchuria.

Ridgway's headquarters would not say how the broadcast to the Communists was made.

It was believed in Tokyo that it would be hours — perhaps even a day or two — before something is heard from either the North Koreans or the Chinese. Some in Tokyo thought it was even possible the answer might come through Moscow.

Across the Japan sea in Korea there still was bloody fighting on the western front. Action had slackened elsewhere.

Allies Smash Red Attack In Central Korea

Tokyo, Saturday (AP)— Allied artillery smashed attacks by two Communist companies in central Korea early today—hours before the official bid for an armistice in the year-long war.

A lull had settled over most of the 100-mile battlefront yesterday. But shortly before midnight, the Reds struck northeast of Kumhwa. Eighth Army headquarters reported they were hurled back.

Kumhwa is 17 air miles north of Parallel 38 and at the southeast corner of the Reds' shattered "iron triangle." Frightful Red losses in two ill-fated spring offensives from that triangle preceded Moscow's suggestions for field negotiations.

There was a bitter but localized fight yesterday for a hill in the west, and signs of stiffening Red resistance in the center. But the overall situation added up to a lull.

A hill north of Parallel 38 in the west changed hands six times. At nightfall, the Reds held it.

In the mountainous center, 1,000 Reds stood firm against Allied patrols probing the area of Kumsong, a Red buildup point 20 miles north of 38.

Miners On Vacation

Washington (AP) — The 400,000 soft coal miners and 80,000 hard coal miners begin a 10-day vacation today under terms of John L. Lewis' contract with the nation's coal operators. The miners will receive a $100 payment for the time they spend on vacation.

Plane Plunges Into Lake Erie

Ashtabula (AP)— An amphibious plane owned by General Tire & Rubber Co., Akron, O., plummeted into Lake Erie near here late yesterday.

The Coast Guard reported there were two survivors, pilot Ted Migdal and co-pilot E. D. Stafford. There was one passenger, but he was not found.

Migdal and Stafford were picked up by a speedboat and taken to Geneva hospital, where their condition was reported "fair."

The hospital said they identified the passenger as David G. Hennessy, of Augusta, Ky., who came to Akron seven months ago as an engineer for Goodyear Aircraft Corp.

U. S. To Insist On Observers On Both Sides Of Truce Line

Washington (AP)—The United States is prepared to insist that any armistice with the Communists in Korea should provide for United Nations observation of armed forces on both sides of the truce line.

Informed officials gave this word to newsmen yesterday as Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway, UN commander in the Korean war, formally offered the Communists a chance to attend armistice talks.

Emphasizing the American position that any effective armistice must be as secure as possible against violation, officials here said there are only two real guarantees:

One—Full information about the activities of the military forces on the other side once the armistice begins to make sure they are not engaged in a build-up or planning a surprise attack.

Two—The military capacity to do something about the situation if information indicates that the opposing force is up to some trickery.

Authorities familiar with the whole background of the Ridgway statement told reporters:

Ridgway's proposition was backed up not only by the American government but by the other 15 governments with armed forces in Korea.

The other governments—whose diplomats met at the State department yesterday afternoon — gave general approval to the step which Ridgway took, but the U. S. took responsibility for preparing the instructions sent to him before he issued his message.

The South Korean Republic government, which has been bitterly critical of the idea of ending the war short of the unification of all Korea, apparently was informed of the proposed action.

In 1946 the first mass was offered at Promised Land by Father Patrick, C. P. on the lake beach before 300 people. In 1947 mass was offered in Promised Land inn and continued until last fall.

The new church will seat 450 persons with a maximum capacity of 600. Mass will be offered every Sunday at noon. The community is invited to the dedication.

Methodist Church To Begin Summer Schedule On Sunday

The stepped-up Summer program of the Stroudsburg Methodist church will officially open Sunday morning with the administration of the Summer Communion at 11 a.m. by the minister, Rev. Walter S. Johnston. Included in the plans for this season is the erection of a much needed addition to the Methodist property for the carrying on of the growing Scout activities sponsored by the men of the church. In this new building, much needed facilities for the work of the Childrens' division of the Church school, John R. Wilson, general superintendent, will be provided. The plan includes also a new church office and minister's study and consultation room.

The Summer program includes also the initiating of Sunday evening services to begin on the first Sunday of August and continue thereafter throughout the Fall and Winter seasons without interruption. Those who love to sing and those who realize their need for spiritual reinforcement for the living of life in these trying days will look forward to these vesper services.

At the communion service Sunday, the large chorus choir under the leadership of Albert J. Fregans, minister of music, will lead the congregation in the beautiful ritual service authorized and suggested by the General conference of the Methodist church.

The Summer program will conclude as the Fall program takes over with the congregational Summer rally service on Labor day Sunday. Details of that special service will be made public at a later date. Dr. Paul H. Shiffer, lay leader of the Stroudsburg Methodist church, is working closely with the minister as co-chairman of the Summer program.

16 Found Guilty Of Blue Law Violation At Gilbert Track

Case Follows Operation Of Track Sunday

Kresgeville—Justice of the Peace Nathantiel Gruber, Gilbert, found 16 men guilty of violating a section of the Blue Laws in connection with operations at the newly established stock-car race track—known as the West End Speedway—at Gilbert. Hearings were held in a classroom of Polk Township High school.

The action followed a stormy hearing during which statements were made that racing would continue again this Sunday and perhaps start earlier in the morning.

Two State police officers from the Brodheadsville substation were present, not in the role of prosecutors, but ever alert during the proceedings which at times waxed hot.

District Attorney Detleff A. Hansen was present to represent the Commonwealth. Attorney Russell L. Mervine was defense counsel.

Two prosecutors were Elmer Kreger and LeRoy Hinton, both of Gilbert. They represented the group of some 400 persons who signed a petition deploring location of the track near churches in Gilbert, as well as people of the churches.

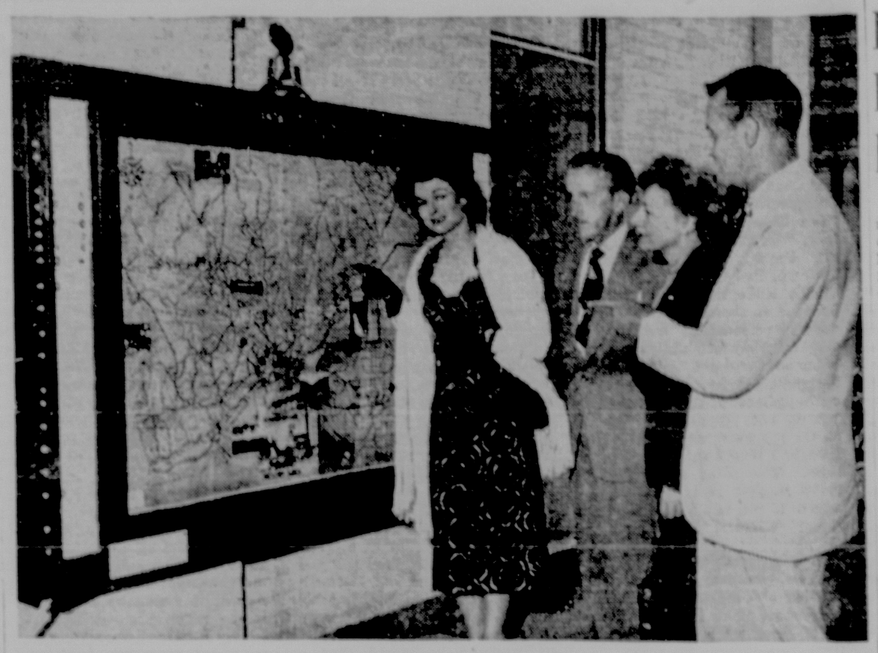

Tempers rose over the Blue Law prosecution under section 9414 of the penal code which allowed imposition of a fine not exceeding $4 plus costs of prosecution.

Actually, the prosecution was based on racing operations at the track last Sunday and from statements made at the hearing racing will continue this Sunday.

Most of the defendants were from outside Monroe county. Those prosecuted included:

Joseph Ribaldi, Kunkletown RD; Charles Frantz, Kunkletown RD; Roy Dorshimer, Kresgeville; Luther Muffley, Lehighton; Clarence Muffley, Weissport; William Muffley, Lehighton; Leon Snyder, Palmerton; Paul Snyder, Tamaqua RD; Carl Kresge, Kresgeville; Paul Balogach, Lehighton RD3; Charles Wuchter, Bath; Gene Yanick, Lehighton; Lester Merder, Tamaqua; Simon Brethen Jr., Palmerton; Warner Wildermuth, Palmerton; Simon Britton Jr., Palmerton.

Two of the defendants, Caesar Ribaldi, Kunkletown RD, and Lloyd Hansler, Kunkletown, were not present at the hearing and therefore no disposition was made of their cases. Action against the 19th man, Charles Hahn, Lehighton, was dropped because of the failure to identify him as having participated in the race last Sunday.

Kiwanis Club Dedicates Electric Map Of Poconos

An electric map sign of the Pocono Mountains was officially dedicated to service of the public yesterday by Stroudsburg Kiwanis club with the assistance of Miss Ruth Hussey, Pocono Mountains Laurel Queen and star of "The Royal Family" at Pocono Playhouse, Mountainhome.

Miss Hussey with Mrs. Rowena Stevens, operator of the Playhouse, and Dixie Lee, publicity director for the theater, were joined by Allan W. Keiper, representing Kiwanis club, and Lew Tyreman, divisional manager of James Hayden & Associates, Chicago, creators of the electric sign map.

The framed and heavily glassed electric map is attached to the Seventh St. side of the Stroudsburg Security Trust Co.

In order to make it of major service to tourists and vacationers entering this region, Kiwanis club has leased two parking meter spaces near the sign for $100 a year each. Travelers will be able to park free while they locate any spot in this region on the map.

Push buttons along the sides of the map allow the individual to light up many sections of the county and easily trace the best route. A red light burns constantly to denote the 7th and Main St. location, giving the individual his starting point.

Sponsoring advertisers, including numerous local businessmen, helped Kiwanis create the fund for the sign.

The club had the choice of taking an iron lung or a comparable sum of money as a result of the promotion. The money will be used by the club in its program of civic aid and betterment, or for similar community projects.

Prior to the formal dedication of the sign Miss Hussey, Mrs. Stevens, Dixie Lee were guests at a luncheon in the Penn-Stroud hotel with Mr. Keiper, Mr. Tyreman and Pocono Mountains Chamber of Commerce.

The Chicago firm has similar signs all over the nation from California to the East Coast and Maine to Florida. This sign has the largest map of any installed.

Heavy Rains Halt Search For Angler

Lake Wallenpaupack — Heavy rainfall here halted efforts yesterday to recover the body of Amos Noble Jr., 39, of 2402 Northampton St., Easton, one of two fishermen who drowned April 15.

Charles Gordon, a diver and his assistant Bernard Globeck, both of Wilkes-Barre, were present for diving attempts. Gordon was preparing to enter the lake when it was decided to halt operations because of rain.

Robert Tragus, lake superintendent for Pennsylvania Power & Light Co. and C. H. Ringledon, lake patrolman, pulled a Navy raft one mile up the lake from Spindler's Point. It was used as a base of diving operations.

Two State policemen from the Milford substation were present with about 20 spectators.

Body of Henry Confer, 35, of 528½ New St., Allentown, the other victim, was discovered last Tuesday floating about 80 feet from shore at Spindler's Point.

That body was found by Amos Noble, Sr., Easton, father of the missing man. Mr. Noble has spent every free moment searching for the body of his son since the drowning. The two men were thrown in about 45 feet of water when their boat capsized.

C Of C Seeks OPS Aid In Relieving Beef Shortage

The problem of adequate supplies of beef in this region, generally, and in certain specific communities of Monroe county brought about a move to seek some liberalization of Office of Price Stabilization regulations pending Congressional action on easing the situation.

As it appeared following a cursory survey conducted yesterday . . . to be followed up with careful studies next week . . . the situation here could improve, but everything pointed to a worsening of conditions.

Realizing that the Tobyhanna community population will soon be enlarged by a large number of trailer families of construction workers, the Pocono Mountains Chamber of Commerce moved to seek some aid in Washington to insure adequate supplies of beef and other meats for dealers in that region.

Retailers are under a rationed quota from distributors, although beef is available at "premium" prices, the investigation showed.

This county has about four slaughter houses. One of these is already reported closed because of the critical shortage and another is without authority to slaughter slaughter in 1950.

Slaughtering is permitted at the rate of about 80 per cent of the 1950 slaughtering rate. In the instance where the operator did not slaughter in 1950, because of ability to obtain beef and other meats, the operator is without a quota for 1951.

There is some local beef available for slaughtering which would ease the supply problem here, but with one slaughterer out of business and another without quota, the market is cut seriously.

Some indication of how the deliveries are affected is shown by a delivery of some 30 pounds of beef to a dealer in one of Monroe county's communities recently. A year ago the same time deliveries ran to 2,000 pounds.

Washington officials yesterday indicated the complaints are flooding them concerning similar situations all over the nation.

William Stern Dies At 60

William Stern, 60, Pocono Pines, died yesterday at 9:30 p.m. in the Monroe County General hospital.

He was the son of Morris and Emma Vallach Stern, Germany. Mr. Stern was a member of the Congregational Habonin Synagogue, and had spent the last five summers at his home in Pocono Pines.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow at 12:15 p.m. in the Riverside Memorial chapel, 180 W. 76th St., New York. Rabbi Hugo Hahn will officiate.

Interment will take place in the Ferncliff Cemetery, N. Y. Arrangements are in charge of the Lanterman funeral home, East Stroudsburg.

Mrs. Martha Kays Honored At Rites

Funeral services for Mrs. Martha E. Kays, of 923 Main St., Stroudsburg, were held yesterday at the funeral home of William H. Clark, Stroudsburg. Rev. William F. Wunder, Grace Lutheran pastor of East Stroudsburg, officiated and Vernon Imbt was at the console of the organ.

PARADOX OF MODERN CIVILIZATION

Time To Cool Tempers

The 1951 Legislature, whose record for longevity is better than for production, has gone home for a 10-day recess over the July 4 holiday. No break in the vexatious financial and tax impass is apparent.

The recess comes at a fortunate time. Chances of accomplishing much for the good of the state are slight, with temperatures and tempers as heated as they have been the last several days. Some progress on revenue and appropriations was made at the recess of several weeks ago. Hopefully, many look for cool and wise heads to return July 9 with an acceptable program.

Reconciliation of the widely divergent viewpoints enunciated this week by executive and legislative spokesmen is a major test for combined legislative ingenuity. Feeling has grown steadily that an income tax is doomed—and it must be.

The deadlock needs to be broken soon. Already it has monopolized too much time that should have gone into other features of a well-devised program. Much good legislation is in increasing jeopardy in an unseemingly rush for adjournment anticipated when agreement is reached on budgetary matters.

Federal Duty, Too

A congressional committee said a multitude of nasty things about administration and supervision of Pennsylvania's GI training school program. The slap is merited; but the charges don't add much to what was disclosed at hearings here and in Philadelphia.

The incompatability of a licensing official engaging in school operations was hit. The indictment added charges of inadequate supervision, sloppy ethics, improper acceptance of gifts, licensing of schools that shouldn't have existed.

The way now seems to be open to action by proper agency, state or federal. Some dismissals have taken place in the Pennsylvania Department of Public Instruction; some charges have been lodged. More of both may be dictated.

The situation is a disagreeable one for Pennsylvania. School operations in the state were second largest in the nation. That they were not in full accord with the lofty purposes that inspired the program is regretted. Let the chips fall where they may!

But while the Congressional committee is on the subject of criticism and chastisement, it is pertinent to ask: Why the ineffective federal check where so much money was involved?

Summer Solace

Now that summer is here, we would like to shuck out winter heavy-thinking cap and put on a light straw designed for hot weather worrying.

A man with sweat in his eye and a shirt stuck to his back is in no condition to solve the Iranian oil squabble, or straighten out Governor Fine's untouchable budget.

Rather he should gently work his brains on such puzzlers as, shall I mow the lawn now or wait for a cooler day?

A good front porch debate can be started over whether the convertible roadster or the old-time hammock is best suited for courting purposes.

Bring out the lawn chairs and tall frosted glasses, folks, it's going to be a busy summer.

Try And Stop Me

By Bennett Cerf

Maybe a compositor on a big New York daily was careless. Maybe his sense of humor got the better of him. At any rate, the financial page that evening carried this intriguing item: "The Citizens and Southern Bank directors voted yesterday to pay shareholders an extra 25-cent 'cost-of-loving' dividend."

"I once had a boss," recalled Morey Amsterdam, "who was so cheap he docked my pay when I came in two minutes late." "What happened if you came in two minutes early?" asked his friend Dave Alber. "In that case," concluded Amsterdam bitterly, "he charged me rent."

Irving Hoffman brought back from Europe the story of a sad-eyed Czech peasant staring at a huge photograph of Stalin in a Prague window. "Who is this man whose picture I see every place I look?" he asked. His city friend answered, "Where have you been hiding, you fool? That's Josef Stalin, who saved us from the Nazis." The peasant said, "Aha! And is he still living?" "Of course he is," said the city man. "In htat case," asked the peasant, "why doesn't he save us from the Russians? "

Hollywood

By Gene Handsaker

Hollywood—"As Young As You Feel" is one of those improbable farces that are just believeable enough to leave everybody feeling younger—and better.

Monty Woolley, mustache points bristling, and Thelma Ritter, again weary housewife, steal most of the footage. Woolley lights into the notion that employes should be fired just because they've reached a compulsory retirement age.

Discharged from his press-feeding job in a printing plant because he's 65 ("The Beard" in real life will be 63 this Aug. 17), Woolley conceives a bold scheme. He dyes his white beard and hair black and dons a dark suit with white piping on the vest. Then he announces himself at the establishment as its wealthy out-of-town owners, whom nobody at the firm has met.

He tours the shops, then tells the directors what they need is to rehire the discharged veteran employes, for their skill and wisdom. Manager Albert Dekker agrees at once. At the manager's home, Woolley overwhelms Dekker's unhappy wife, Constance Bennett, with his charm. At the country club they dance a mean rhumba.

Woolley, still in disguise, addresses the Chamber of Commerce. Combat inflation and depression, he argues, by keeping the valuable senior citizens at work. The real plant owner, in his Manhattan boardroom, is flabbergasted. Stocks boom; labor troubles subside; goodwill for his industrial empire increases. Woolley, the imposter, has helped public relations immeasurably.

Allyn Joslyn plays Woolley's hyprochondriac son, with whom the old man resides.

These Days -- By George E. Sokolsky

McCarthy's 60,000 Words

Senator Joe McCarthy put together a study of General George Marshall from the record made by his friends. The immediate newspaper reports were based not upon the Senator's 60,000-word speech but on a supposition of what he might have said. In current journalism, this is called "high-lighting," and is generally inaccurate and distorted.

So I waited until I could get a full copy of the speech; read the whole of the 60,000 words and realized that the Senator had done a decent job of research and analysis. To make the matter clear, this is a partial bibliography that Senator McCarthy used in connection with this speech:

Winston Churchill, "The Hinge of Fate"; Admiral William Leahy, "I was there;" Cordell Hull, "Memoirs of Cordell Hull, Vol. II"; Henry L. Stimson, "On Active Service"; James F. Byrnes, "Speaking Frankly"; Sumner Welles, "Seven Decisions that Shaped History"; Edward Stettinius, Jr., "Roosevelt and the Russians"; Robert Sherwood, "Roosevelt and Hopkins"; Hanson Baldwin, "Great Mistakes of the War"; General H. H. Arnold, "Global Mission"; General Claire Chennault, "Way of a Fighter"; General Lucius Clay, "Decision in Germany"; General Mark Clark, "Calculated Risk"; General John R. Deane, "Strange Alliance"; General Omar Bradley, "The War America Fought" "Life Magazine," April 30, 1951; Edgar Ansel Mowrer, "The Nightmare of American Foreign Policy"; Jonathan Daniels, "The Man of Independence"; Freda Utley, "The China Story"; Henry Wallace, "Soviet Asia Mission"; Robert Payne, "Mao Tse-Tung—Ruler of Red China."

This bibliography is important because it shows not a single enemy—personal or political—of General Marshall, unless it be Winston Churchill with whom Marshall did not see eye-to-eye during phases of the war.

I do not propose here to indicate my own judgment of this speech; I shall do that at another time. The point of this piece is to suggest that the speech ought to be read; ought to be taken seriously; and should be discussed.

It is apparent throughout that Senator McCarthy, while not approving of General Marshall, devotes most of his long speech not to his own views but to quotations from others. He says:

" . . . There are various ways in which to arrive at an estimate of a wartime figure. It is helpful if he will write his own recollections, but that General Marshall has declined to do, giving, as I understand it, the explanation that to do so would injure certain reputations. If all public figures accepted that thesis, I may remark in passing, the public would be even less enlightened than it is at present. In pursuit of an estimate, one may also gain information from official records. The records of the Joint Chiefs of Staff and the Anglo-American combined Chiefs of Staff are not open to my perusal. In the end the inquirer will also find in the archives of the enemy, when they become available, evidence regarding the behavior of his own leaders. If the archives of the Kremlin are ever open to us, we shall have even deeper insight than we have today concerning the conduct of our current leaders. But as matters now stand, I have been forced to rely upon the memoirs and upon some other contemporary sources. I repeat that all these are friendly sources, and cannot be charged with attempts to injure General Marshall."

From that point on, McCarthy devotes himself to showing how General Marshall placed himself in posture to run the American participation in World War II, largely by quarrelling with Winston Churchill over where the second front was to be and how it was to be managed. It was Churchill versus Stalin, with Marshall on Stalin's side. Out of this particular decision, which Marshall finally won, Stalin gained mastery of Eastern Europe.

McCarthy then goes on to discuss Yalta, raising the issue for the 1952 campaign:

"It was Marshall who stood at Roosevelt's elbow at Yalta, urging the grim necessity of bribing Stalin to get into the war. It was Marshall who submitted intelligence reports to support his argument, suppressing more truthful estimates, according to Welles, in Hanson Baldwin's book on page 81, and keeping from the stricken Roosevelt knowledge that the Japanese were even then feeling for peace in acknowledgment of defeat."

It is interesting that some writers insist upon calling all this hindsight. They forget that men like Herbert Hoover, Hugh Gibson, Arthur Bliss Lane, William C. Bullitt, Joseph P. Kennedy and many others, including, if I may be so immodest, myself, had lots to say on this subject from 1938 until today. As one lists such names, it would be most unjust not to include Charles Lindbergh, who was pilloried and destroyed as a public figure because he recognized early the truth of Russian imperialism.

Sunday School Lesson

Scripture — Genesis 1:26-27; Matthew 8:1-4; 12:9-13; 18:1-6; 12-14; I Peter 1:17-19.

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL

In Genesis we read of man's creation. "God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness: and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and upon the earth.

"So God created man in His own image, in the image of God created He him; male and female created He them."

Isn't it odd that up through the ages man has not thought of his brother men as created in the image of the Almighty? If he had, how could he have treated him as he has?

And if all men realized that they are made in the image of God, how could they permit themselves to be so cruel, so unjust, so tyrannical to their brothers?

Are humans just beginning to realize their inheritance and to demand that they (every individual) should be treated with respect, love, brotherhood?

Jesus considered people worthy of help and healing. Every one who came to Him in faith and sincerity He aided—the beggar at the roadside, the rich man. Little children were His friends and He used a child to illustrate the humble spirit that men needed to achieve the kingdom of heaven.

Our first story that shows the spirit of Jesus is when a poor leper came to Him and begged to be cured. No one else would touch a person so afflicted. They would be afraid that they would become infected and "unclean." Jesus, the Christ, did not fear.

When the man, probably kneeling before Him, said: "Lord, if Thou wilt. Thou canst make me clean," Jesus put forth His hand, and touched him, saying, I will; be thou clean. And immediately his leprosy was cleansed."

Jesus told the man to tell no one, but to show himself to the priest, and to offer the gift Moses commanded.

On the Sabbath Jesus went into the synagogue, and there was a man with a withered hand. Thinking to accuse Him of sacrilege, the Pharisees asked Jesus if it was lawful to heal on the Sabbath.

What man of them, asked Jesus, owning a sheep, would not lift it out of a pit into which it had fallen, even if it was the Sabbath? "How much then is a man better than a sheep? Wherefore it is lawful to do well on the Sabbath days."

Jesus had the man stretch forth his arm and when he did so, the Lord healed it.

The disciples came to Jesus to ask, "Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?" seeking special favors for themselves. Jesus gave them a lesson then and there: He called a little child and put him among them. Then He said.

"Verily I say unto you, except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven.

"Whosoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven," and He went on to say that he who received such a little child in His name, received Him, and woe betide one who should offend such a little one.

In a recent lesson we had the parable of the man who had many sheep, and one went astray. The owner left the ninety and nine, and searched and searched until he found the lost one. Then he carried it home and gave a feast to his friends to celebrate the return of the lost lamb.

"He rejoiceth more of that sheep than of the ninety and nine which went not astray.

"Even so it is not the will of your Father which is in heaven, that one of these little ones should perish."

God, our Father made all of us and we all share the good things of the earth—or at least, such should be our heritage. When we do not share with others: when we are proud and treat them as if we thought they were not as good as we, we should remember Jesus in His brief sojourn on earth. He respected people for what they were. He "ate with publicans and sinners;" He talked to the woman of Samaria and taught her His gospel.

Why cannot we consider each person we meet as also made in God's image? Like little children, why are we not humble in spirit so that we too may inherit the kingdom of heaven. And why do we not act while we are here on earth as if we ARE made in God's image?

Memory verse—"For Thou hast made him but little lower than God, and crownest him with glory and honor."—Psalm 8:5.

Looking at Life

By Erich Brandeis

Brandeis

We are so gosh darn fond of peace that during my lifetime we have been fighting three wars for it.

But even if we have to kill millions of men, women and children in the pursuit of peace, will we ever really get it?

PEACE is not something we can buy or borrow or steal like a piece of furniture, a diamond bracelet, a mink coat.

PEACE is a state of mind.

There will never, NEVER be peace on this earth until the simple rules stated in the second chapter of St. Luke's is followed.

That rule is:—"on earth peace, good will toward men."

Some interpret it a bit differently as "on earth peace to men of good will."

But it really all amounts to the same thing.

There can be NO PEACE without good will.

But IS there good will among men?

Certainly not!

Take up your newspaper and see.

Fighting. Squabbling. Quibbling. Spite. Malicious gossip.

Take my own town of less than 12,000.

During the last few weeks seventeen people in local politics have either resigned or declared that they won't run for re-election. They have had enough. Too much fighting. Even the dog warden is in a political row.

The town folks are fighting about a new highway to be constructed.

They are having a row with the company that wants to bring in natural gas.

There is dissention and dissatisfaction in the Civil Defense organization.

Two partners in a nearby store just had each other arrested. One was threatening the other with a hammer. He claims the other had punched him on the nose.

We have a bathing beach here. We residents all have to buy stickers for our cars to get into the beach area.

This year they doubled the fee. "Improvements," they claim.

But our local paper runs a letter from an irate woman from which I quote as follows:

"I never saw the beach in such filthy condition, stones and debris making it impossible to bathe or sit down in comfort. All my friends are indiginant."

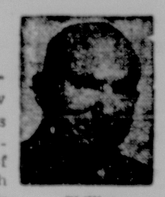

Yet, right next to this letter is another one:

"It was indeed a pleasure to see the excellent job the beach commission has accomplished," says the writer and congratulates the members on their fine job.

The Once Over

Peace Routines, 1951 Model

Oh for the days when a peace proposal was simple, direct and easily understandable! The era when the words "Let us have peace" didn't bring a suspicious look and a fast "I wonder what he can mean by that!" Today a peace proposition brings an immediate search for gimmicks, booby traps, short circuits, broken glass and rusty nails. It makes people almost as jumpy as war itself.

Through the ages a headline, "Peace Proposed" was logically followed by "War Near End; Armistice Called." Today the same headline brings "World Wary of Offer," "Diplomats Fear Trap," "Double Cross Seen," etc. The routine, sadly enough, has come to be this:

1.—Mr. Malik proposes peace.

2.—He takes to his bed from his own amazement.

3.—The world reads his proposal, staggers, falls into a chair, takes a bracer and wonders what's up

4.—Washington names a Commission to Keep Peace During Possible Peace Talks, a Board to Separate the Abusive Paragraphs from the Gracious Ones, if Any, in the Malik Proposal, and a Committee To See What's Up

5.—London names a Weeding Council to weed out all threats, snarls, invectives, slurs and insults from the peace proposal and to see if anything is left.

6.—Trygve Lie issues statement warning everybody to keep the kiddies off the streets, look under the bed and sleep with one eye open, as Russia has hinted it will cooperate in a peace move.

7.—A group of engineers reports "that the skyscraper home of the United Nations has developed several wide cracks and shifted 30 degrees off center, due to the Malik speech.

8.—The U. N. Good Offices Committee goes over the Malik address once more for barbed wire entanglements, mine fields, kidney punches, and hidden card tricks. It decides to put on 30 more analysts, word experts, interpreters and specialists in hidden meanings.

9.—The U. N. goes into a huddle and names a Committee To Take Steps against An Ambush.

10.—The Free World names an international board ao inquire into snags, pitfalls, low bridges, disappearing doves, bean balls and the use of spiked shoes in proposals for amity.

11.—Mr Malik insists he is 100 per cent sincere in a statement introducing 236 new invectives and 26 previously unused synonyms for "warwonger," "imperialistic dog" and "unscrupulous exploiter."

13.—Things begin to look pretty alarming on all fronts.

14.—It is discovered that when Mr. Malik and Red China use the word "peace" it is not peace, but "halibut sauce" spelled backwards.

Fay Mae Hallett Is Bride Of Edwin Miller Jr. In Wedding At Grace Church

In one of June's most elaborate weddings, Miss Fay Mae Hallett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur C. Hallett, of East Stroudsburg, RD 3, became the bride of Edwin Miller Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Miller Sr., of Bridgeview Inn, Delaware Water Gap, at 7 o'clock last night.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by Grace Church pastor, Rev. William F. Wunder before the candle-lit altar where altar flowers of white carnations, baby's breath and white chrysanthemum flowers had been placed. A white aisle runner, and white gladioli tied with white satin ribbon to the end of each pew made an effective background for the bridal procession. The chancel bouquets were of blue delphinium, white carnations and pompons.

Miss Gertrude Seguine, organist of the Lafayette Methodist church, Jersey City, N. J., presided at the console. Durrell Mader, tenor soloist, sang "Because," "I Love You Truly," and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin trimmed with lace, with an off-the-shoulder neckline filled with illusion. Her veil was held in place by a crown of seed pearls and rhinestones. She carried a white Bible surmounted by an orchid tied in streamers with miniature white rosebuds intertwined.

Mrs. Janice Drop, sister of the bride, was her matron of honor, and wore a gown of yellow shirred taffeta with an illusion yoke, and carried a fan of yellow roses and lavendar gladioli.

The bridesmaids, Mrs. Emma Wolbert and Mrs. Joyce Mosier, both sisters of the bridegroom wore gowns of lavendar lace and net, and carried fans of yellow roses.

There were three small flower girls, Nancy Joan Drop, Carol Jean Drop and Nan Eleanor Hallett, all in long gowns of white taffeta with flower crowns holding miniature veils, and they carried baskets of flowers.

James Williams was ring bearer, and John Williams and Chester Hallet Jr served as acolytes.

Chester W. Hallet Sr., brother of the bride, was best man, and the ushers were Jacob A. Wolbert and Norman W. Mosier, brothers-in-law of the bridegroom.

The couple knelt on a white satin-covered pillow before the altar during the wedding prayers.

A reception followed in the social rooms of the parish house which had been decorated with white wedding bells and streamers, flowers and a tiered wedding cake. There were about 150 guests.

The bride's mother received her guests in a dress of blue crepe and lace, with white accessories, while the bridegroom's mother wore a white print dress with white accessories. They both wore corsages of white roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller are now on a wedding trip through the Shenandoah Valley. For traveling the bride wore a street-length dress in aqua lace and crepe with navy accessories and an orchid corsage.

On their return they will reside at their new home on Franklin Hill, East Stroudsburg, RD 3.

The bride was graduated from East Stroudsburg High school in the class of 1950, and is employed at the Art Metal Co. Mr. Miller is employed at the Line Material Co.

Just Between Us

—By Bobby Westbrook

This business of getting children ready for camp gets more complicated every year, seems as though. There really should be a period of quarantine from the time you get their clothes all clean and the time they leave when you could confine them to the house and have them wear nothing but the jeans with the holes in the knees and the polo shirts that shrunk.

Instead of that, you just draw a big breath of relief at having finished ironing the last blouse they think they have to take, when they come with a whole washerful of things they've got dirty since the day before.

Cloudbursts and mud puddles don't help the situation either. Neither do unexpected hot dog roasts, trips down town for chocolate ice cream cones, or spaghetti for lunch.

Maybe other mothers manage better, but I have a feeling I'll still be ironing come six a.m. Monday morning when they leave, and will have to go running down the driveway after them with the bathing suits we had to put in the oven to dry.

Beyond that, I can't imagine what it will be like to have the phones free of teen-age chatter, the house uncluttered with baseball mitts, and their rooms staying straightened up for a whole week.

Picnic On 4th At Effort

Effort — St. John's Lutheran Sunday school will hold a picnic and cake walk on the church grounds at Effort on July 4.

Music will be furnished by Eddie LaBar and his polka band; a bazaar and grab bag will be sponsored by the Secret Pals club, and there will be a fish pond for the children. The rain date has been set for the next clear night.

At 90 miles an hour the ignition system of an eight-cylinder car delivers 300 sparks a second.

Jr. Crusaders Have Picnic Despite Rain

Bartonsville — Despite the showers on Wednesday night, the Junior Crusaders of St. John's Lutheran Sunday school held a picnic supper, but inside the parish house instead of on the parish house lawn.

The rain didn't dampen the enthusiasm of the baseball fans, either, who played a game outside after supper until halted by darkness.

A brief business meeting was conducted with Robert Field presiding. Plans were made for a hot dog roast the next regular meeting night, July 25. In event of rain it will be held July 26. Each person will bring hot dogs, but rolls, drinks and marshmallows will be donated by friends of the group.

Hymn singing was enjoyed with Mrs. Haviland Heller playing the piano accompaniment. John Frailey presented the Scripture lesson and Rev. John Bergstresser leading in prayer.

Miss Mildred Deacon, Bible club teacher, led the Bible study period, presenting a flano graph story in which she stressed Jesus Christ as the only door by which man may enter God's fold, rather than good works.

Kodacrome slides featuring church and Sunday school meetings and scenic veiws were shown by Haviland Heller.

Those attending were Rev. and Mrs. John Bergstresser and daughter Janice, Mr. and Mrs. Haviland Heller, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Field and sons, Robert, Thomas and John, Grace Labadie, Marian Butts, Teddy Eilber, John Frailey and Ronald Swink.

Next time you make corn bread for Sunday breakfast dice some bacon and sprinkle it over the batter before baking. If the bacon isn't as brown as you want it before the corn bread is done put the pan under the broiler for a few minutes. Good served with eggs, fruit preserves, and lots of coffee.

Members present included Berneda McCarthy, Evelyn Martz, Carol Mushko, Betty Lou Owens, Sue Wicks, Zandy Wicks, Nancy Walter David Terrill, James Terrill, Barry Plattenburg present. Mrs. T. E. Terrill, Mrs. Wendell Wicks, the leader and Harold Stewart were also present.

Household Hints

Some cooks like to use a piece of fine cotton cord for cutting hot Boston brown bread to serve with baked beans. Keep the string taut between your fingers for quick cutting with no crumbly edges.

Serve fresh apricots as a salad desert: Halve and pit, then fill the halves with cream cheese mixed with preserved ginger that's been finely cut. Place the filled apricot halves on watercress and pass the sour cream.

Next time you bake muffins give the family a surprise: Put a chunk of canned pineapple on top of the batter in each muffin cup, sprinkle with sugar, and then bake as usual.

Liver paste for sandwiches is easy to make at home, and liver is so nutritious it should be served often to families. To make the paste just mix ground cooked liver with a little melted butter or magarine, chili sauce to taste, finely grated union and salt and pepper.

Leftover ham (ground) may be mixed with leftover seasoned mashed potatoes and shaped into cakes, flour the cakes lightly and fry until heated through and lightly browned. A salad of greens plus thinly shaved carrot strips and olives tastes good with this.

Now that warm weather's here you'll be packing picnic lunches and carrying sandwiches. It's well to remember, however, that salad fillings of chicken, eggs, fish, or meat are not recommended for summertime carrying unless they can be kept cold.

Mr. And Mrs. Ira S. Price Celebrate Golden Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Ira S. Price, of East Stroudsburg, recently observed their golden wedding anniversary. No special celebration had been planned, but they received flowers, numerous gifts and greetings from friends, also a money tree from their children and grandchildren.

Mrs. Price was the former Margaret Metzgar, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Metzgar, lifelong residents of Barrett Township. Before her marriage she lived in Philadelphia where she graduated from Palms Business College and held several responsible positions as bookkeeper. She was a member and very active in the work of the West York Street (now Hancock Memorial) Church where Mr. and Mrs. Price were married on June 19, 1901, by Rev. Stephen H. Evans, assisted by Rev. J. F. Crouch.

Mr. Price was also a resident of Barrett Township. He is a painter and interior decorator by trade, but for a number of years was postmaster at Canadensis.

They have three daughters: Mrs. H. W. Tebbs, of Stroudsburg; Mrs. William MacLeer, of New York, and Mrs. C. R. Strock, of Newport, Pa.; also six grandchildren.

On their anniversary they were the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Ruhl of Philadelphia, at Rhodes' Coffee Shop at Scotrun. Mrs. Ruhl played the organ for their wedding fifty years ago.

Later in the week Mr. and Mrs. Tebbs gave a dinner in their honor. Those present were Miss Ada Stright and Miss Bertha Bugless of Mountainhome; Mrs. John Metzgar of Canadensis; Mr. and Mrs. Price and Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Tebbs.

Here is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your keynumber. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

U. S. Spending To Exceed 68 Billions

Washington (AP) — Government spending will exceed $68,000,000,000 in the fiscal year beginning July 1, a Budget bureau official estimated yesterday, and may reach $90,000,000,000 in the succeeding year.

Elmer B. Staats, assistant director of the Bureau of the Budget, laid the astronomical figures before the Senate Finance committee. The committee is holding hearings on the administration's request for more than $10,000,000,000 in new taxes.

By far the biggest item in the budget is the amount to be spent for military preparedness, Staats reported. He said that even after the defense buildup is completed it may require $40,000,000,000 annually to keep the Defense department going.

He estimated that about half of this amount would be needed "merely to support a standing armed force of 3,500,000 men."

Staats' estimate of spending for the fiscal year 1952, beginning Sunday, was $68,400,000,000. President Truman's original budget estimate in January was $71,600,000,000.

Senator Taft (R-Ohio), a member of the finance committee, told newsmen he suspected the administration was seeking a big tax hike this year so it wouldn't have to ask for another one just before the 1952 elections. Taft emphasized it was only a suspicion.

The House has approved a bill for $7,200,000,000 in new taxes, including a 12½ per cent boost in income taxes. Sentiment in the Senate seemed to be to trim this figure somewhat.

One Democratic member of the committee who did not wish to be quoted by name predicted the tax bill would become law in September, with the new withholding rates on salaries and wages taking effect Oct. 1.

Czechs Agree To Release Jet Pilots

Washington (AP) — Communist Czechoslovakia, yielding to a vigorous American protest, yesterday agreed to release the pilots of two U. S. jet fighter planes who made a forced landing behind the iron curtain three weeks ago.

The State department said the Czech Foreign office gave U. S. Ambassador Ellis O. Briggs a note promising to free the pilots and the planes. It did not say when.

The Czech note was in response to a protest filed by Briggs this week.

The two pilots are Lt. Luther G. Roland of Hummelstown, Pa., and Lt. Bjoern Johansen, a Norwegian training with the U. S. Air Force in Germany.

The State department said the pilots had been held incommunicado since they made an emergency landing near Prague, on June 8, while engaged in a training flight in the American occupation zone of Germany.

Meanwhile, Czech authorities have carried on an "investigation" and complained that the incident was another in a long series of American provocations.

Coincident with the State department announcement, the Czech government said it will bill the U. S. embassy in Prague for hangar space and other expenses involved in the detention of the two pilots.

The Czech statement also declared that Lt. Johansen will be returned directly to his own country because he announced "he does not wish to return to the Air Force of the United States nor to the American occupation zone in Germany."

B-36s Reach England From Texas Nonstop

Lakenheath Air Base, Eng. (AP)—Three B-36s of the United States Air Force flew in from Texas yesterday on a 5,000-mile non-stop flight—half the distance they can carry the atom bomb.

The 10-engine global bombers came here from Carswell Air Force base near Ft. Worth "on a purely routine training flight," a U. S. Third Air Force officer said. The first plane set down here 22½ hours after leaving Texas Thursday.

The flight is the second time the 180-ton heavies have appeared over Britain. They are equipped with six regular and four jet engines. Six B-36s made the round trip from Carswell to Lakenheath last January. On that trip, the bombers stopped at Limeston Air Force base in Maine coming over and returned non-stop.

NBC To Film TV Shows For Movies

New York (AP)—National Broadcasting Co. disclosed yesterday that it will make feature-length motion pictures for theater display, starring the big network's top television performers.

Each film will be a roundup of highlights from one outstanding TV show of the past season, such as the Milton Berle, Jimmy Durante and Eddie Cantor programs.

NBC officials said video techniques will be used throughout in making the pictures, the only difference being that 35MM movie cameras will be substituted for TV cameras. Robert Montgomery is being "considered" as narrator for the films, the network added.

Brancato, No. 10 On Criminal List, Gives Up To FBI

San Francisco (AP) — Anthony Brancato, one of the FBI's "ten most wanted men," surrendered to agent Harry Kimball here yesterday.

Kimball declined to say why the hunted man gave himself up, other than to comment "it was getting pretty hot for him."

The FBI identified Brancato, 36, of Kansas City, Mo., as "a tough hoodlum who has been connected with illegal gambling enterprises for years."

Brancato was placed on the list of 10 most wanted men two days ago as a replacement for Henry Clay Tollett, an escapee from McNeil Island, Wash., who was shot to death by state police at Redding, Calif., June 3.

Truce Ends Walkout Of UAL Pilots

Chicago (AP)—A strike of pilots that halted service for 10 days on United Airlines—the nation's fourth largest passenger carriers—was ended yesterday by a truce.

The company and its 900 striking AFL pilots and co-pilots agreed at a pre-dawn conference to restore service while the National Mediation board tries for complete settlement.

"I don't think it will take too long," was the optimistic comment from Thomas E. Bickers, board secretary who worked out the truce agreement.

United normally carries 9,600 passengers, 100,000 pounds of air-mail and 248,000 pounds of cargo daily. Its 131 transport planes fly 188,000 miles daily on 220 flights over the 13,250 mile system serving 82 points from coast to coast and from California to Hawaii.

UAL is surpassed only by American Airlines and the Pennsylvania and New York Central railroads as a passenger carrier.

President Truman called on the pilots six days ago to end their strike as "good American citizens."

Under the truce arrangement, however, the pilots, members of the AFL Air Line Pilots association, will refuse at this time to fly the company's new bigger and faster DC-6B transport planes.

UAL has had six of these $1,000,000 planes ready for service since April 29 but they never have been used in regular service.

Life of Riley

By JIM RILEY
Sports Editor

Home runs have been hit in baseball parks throughout the nation time after time, but the one slammed by Dick Schaller at Tatamy probably is the only one that has ever separated an outfielder from his pants. The entire incident occurred when Schaller sent the ball over the short right field fence, but close enough to enable Tatamys John Poltzer to make a gallant try for the dropping ball. Poltzer tumbled backward over the low snow fence, missed the ball but caught his pants on the top of the fence and ripped them badly.

Players gathered around the pantless Poltzer, while some substitute was forced to give up his trousers and they were in turn raced out to Poltzer in right field, where he dressed behind his protective screen of players and the game continued. Although he finished the contest in a two-tone uniform, Poltzer remained one of the top players on the Tatamy roster. Russell Redfern and Nelson Redfern, both of whom opened the present Blue Mountain League campaign with Tatamy, are now members of the Johnsonville club.

Ira "Curt" Curtis, former hurler with Nazareth, North Atlantic League, did the pitching for Tatamy on Thursday, but the temperamental right hander has lost much of the effectiveness that made him one of the best chuckers during the three years he worked in the class "D" NAL. However, Curtis still displays the same temper that kept him in hot water with players, fans and officials alike, all through his professional diamond career. Curtis still continues to keep the batters loose with his famous duster.

Rain washed out the baseball school sponsored by the Philadelphia Phillies at Gordon Giffels field yesterday, but the final session will be held on the same field today, from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. Twenty-nine players were enrolled at yesterday's session, but none of them got an opportunity to show their stuff as the W. Main St. ball yard was flooded with water after the morning rain. Of the 29 on the school roster, 14 were from the local area.

The local group included Ray Steele, Bushkill; Al Schoch, Mt. Pocono; Stan "Lefty" Kolodzey, Tobyhanna; Dewey Martling, East Stroudsburg; Forrest Mervine, Stroudsburg; Harvey Houser, Mt. Bethel; Dick Schmidt, Saylorsburg; Gordon Souders, Gilbert; Bill Metzgar, Stroudsburg; Gabriel Kolcun, East Stroudsburg; Ed. Reese, Gilbert; Harold Frace, Bangor; Ray Masters, Bangor; Anthony Falcone, Bangor. There undoubtedly will be an even larger turnout of local players at the school's final session today.

A total of 144 boys, from both the East Stroudsburg and Stroudsburg Little Leagues, will be the guests of the Philadelphia Phillies, when the defending National League champs take on the Pittsburgh Pirates, at Shibe Park, on Saturday, July 14. The 25 adults accompanying the group will be admitted for a reduced rate. This treat was made possible between the cooperation of Marty Baldwin, the Pocono Mountains Chamber of Commerce, and the Phillies.

Andy Clark, park office manager for the Phils, is a close friend of Tom Robinson, owner of Twin Pine Ranch, Snydersville. Ed. Kobesky, manager of the Batavia entry in the class "D" Pony League, was ejected from a game against Olean on Thursday night and his team was forced to forfeit its contest to Olean, 9-0. Kobesky was to have replaced catcher Dick Petro, who suffered a leg injury, before the pilot became involved in an argument with umpire Bob Burns. Left without a receiver, Batavia had to throw in the sponge.

Batavia's regular catchers, Ray Jamilkowski and Bob Radley, are on a two-weeks tour of duty with the National Guard. Kobesky is known in Monroe County, having brought his Batavia club to Gordon Giffels field annually for pre-season exhibition games with the Stroudsburg Poconos in recent years. Gordon Coy has given up his position as co-manager of the Peters-Arnold-Howell entry in the East Stroudsburg Little League to assist C. A. "Phiz" Nauman, league president, with administrative duties.

The East Stroudsburg circuit is scheduled to hold a Tag Day early in July, in an effort to raise money to finish the Little League stadium being built. A ward campaign is already in motion. The circuit is anxious to raise an additional $2,000, so that the new field may be completed as soon as possible. The new field will feature bleachers, dugouts and everything that goes with the modern game of baseball. The circuit is playing all its games at the East Stroudsburg Playground until such time as the new diamond is completed.

Phils Score In Ninth Frame To Take Measure Of Dodgers

Brooklyn (AP)—Ralph Caballero's ninth-inning triple and a two-run homer by Del Wilber in the fifth gave Philadelphia a 3-2 win over Brooklyn last night, clipping the Dodgers lead to four and one-half games. Robin Roberts held the Brooks to five hits in hanging up his ninth victory.

The only Dodger runs came on homers by Jackie Robinson in the second and "Duke" Snider in the ninth. Robinson's tenth of the season came on Roberts' first pitch in the second.

Wilber hammered his second homer of the season off loser Erv Palica after Tommy Brown, an ex-Dodger, opened the fifth with a single.

Pep Talk

The Phils, who listened to a pep talk from Manager Eddie Sawyer yesterday, nailed it down with one in the ninth. Willie Jones singled. Then with one out Caballero tripled to the exit gate in right center, scoring Jones.

Snider's sixteenth homer came with one out and nobody on in the ninth. Roberts then settled down to retire the next two hitters.

The Brooks' fifth loss in their last six games enabled the second place New York Giants, rained out at Boston, to gain a half game in the National League race.

Junior Legion Teams To Play On Monday

A Junior American Legion baseball game will form the first half of a doubleheader at Gordon Giffels field on Monday, as the George N. Kemp American Legion Post and the Thomas P. Lambert Veterans of Foreign Wars Post wind up hostilities in a donkey baseball game under the lights.

Opener

The first tussle, listed for 6, will feature the Martocci-Capobianco American Legion Post of Roseto against the George N. Kemp American Legion Post of E. Stroudsburg. It will be the first meeting of the year between the two junior legion foes, although an earlier scheduled contest was washed off the books by rain.

Action in the first donkey game of the season in Monroe county is slated for 8:30 at the W. Main St. field.

A large crowd is expected to be on hand when the two service organizations feature the first doubleheader of its kind to be held in Monroe county.

Tuesday of next week is the final day in which members of Glen Brook Country club can qualify for the club championship, it was announced late last night by Mike Rubish, head pro at the local course.

Negro Baseball Returns To Slate Belt

Bangor — Colored baseball's greatest attraction, the nationally famous Indianapolis Clowns, appears in the Lehigh Valley for the first time next Thursday night facing Ed Bolden's Philadelphia Stars under the arcs here at Memorial Park in a regular Negro American League contest.

Latest official statistics reveal that the Clowns, current eastern division leaders and last season's sectional champions, pace the circuit in hitting with a .328 average as well as in fielding with a .965 mark and also boast several members who are setting the tempo in individual effort.

Eight front line performers, headed by Erwin Ford's spectacular .426 percentage, are wacking the ball at better than a .300 clip. Len Pigg, hitting .382; Nat Peoples, with .381; Lea Williams, with .347; Sherry Brewer, with .316; Ray Neil, with .303; Lincoln Boyd, with .302; and Henry "Speed" Merchant with .391, comprise the others in this charmed circle.

Power

First baseman Williams, at last report, also was marshalling the loop in home runs with a total of 11, and in RBI and runs scored with 35 and 36 respectively, while fleet-footed Merchant is ahead in triples with an even dozen and in stolen bases, having pilfered a score.

Peoples is on top in two-baggers with 13 and the league pitching is commanded by Tugerson, who sports a 6-0 record, which is followed closely by that of his mate, Harry Butts, who has racked up five straight.

The Clowns' tremendous offensive power must be rated with some of the great former clubs of Negro baseball, the Homestead Grays and the Pittsburgh Crawfords, who, before disbanding were considered to have the greatest hitting combinations in the annals of the colored game.

White Sox Hold Half-Game Lead

Chicago (AP)—The Chicago White Sox last night clung to their precious one half game lead in the American League by walloping the St. Louis Browns, 10-3, in the first of a four game series.

The White Sox sent 18 batters to the plate in the first two innings to score eight runs and rout pitchers Tommy Byrne and Jimmy Suchecki.

Pleased Crowd

A delighted crowd of 23,352 witnessed Chicago's forty-third victory in 66 games to remain in front of the New York Yankees. It was the White Sox seventh triumph over the Browns in eight games this season.

Orestes Minoso, leading hitter in the American League, paced Chicago's 13-hit attack with a double and two singles in lifting his average to .367.

Howard Judson went the distance for Chicago to establish a 3-0 record.

Fly Steals Attention From PGA Golfers

Oakmont, Pa., (AP) — The defending champion, medalist and four former titlists were swept from the professional golfers association tournament yesterday but these rocky incidents were completely overshadowed by the case of the curious fly.

The vagrant insect — variously described as a tiny butterfly or a gnat — figured in the stormy second round match between Sam Snead and Marty Furgol which was won by Snead with a birdie three on the twenty-first hole.

The match, followed by a yelling throng of some 5,000, was finished about dusk after a series of huddles by the brains of the PGA.

Furgol, 32-year-old Lemont, Ill., professional, protested on the fourteenth green that Snead violated a rule when he stooped down to blow an insect off his ball.

Snead contended he didn't touch or clean the pellet and thus had broken no regulations.

When it was impossible to get a ruling immediately, Furgol continued under protest and matched the tempestuous slammer from White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., stroke for stroke up to the eighteenth where they finished all square.

No Protest

Then Furgol elbowed from the green into the PGA headquarters where all the higher brass went into a consultation.

While they were deliberating — and while Snead was out on the nineteenth threatening to claim the match by default — Furgol entered the session and said he was withdrawing his protest.

The PGA bigwigs heaved a huge sigh of relief and announced a decision on the matter may be announced later.

Furgol discovered that he was only prolonging the agony for, after halving the first two extra holes in birdies and pars, Snead laced a beautiful iron shot to within six feet of the pin on the 387-yard twenty-first and closed out the match right there.

Snead thus was left one of the few giants remaining in the field of 16 after two full rounds of eliminations, from sunup to sundown on the 6,882-yard, par 72 Oakmont course.

Other favorites to prevail included Lloyd Mangrum of Niles, Ill., the leading money winner and top choice for the title; Jim Ferrier, the sure-putting former Australian; huge Vic Ghezzi of Inwood, N. Y., champion in 1941. Ferrier won the title in 1947.

Nine extra hole matches were played during the long, dreary day with one of them eliminating Chandler Harper of Portsmouth, Va., who won the PGA crown a year ago at Columbus' Scioto club.

The slender Virginian, fretting with stomach and club-swinging troubles, was ushered to the sidelines by Jim Turnesa of Briarcliff, N. Y., who rallied to square the match on the eighteenth and then won it with a 25-foot, over-hill putt on the twenty-third.

A's Sweep Pair From Senators

Philadelphia (AP) — Philadelphia advanced to within a half-game of sixth place Washington by dumping the Senators twice last night, 3-2 and 11-5.

Home runs by Eddie Joost and Gus Zernial featured the first game victory and a seven run seventh uprising decided the nightcap. Joose and Lou Klein both homered in the second game, giving the former 12 for the year. Zernial's wallop was his 17th of the season.

Big Inning

Washington scored four times in the second inning of the afterpiece as starter Alex Kellner walked Mickey Grasso with the bags loaded to force in one tally. Then Eddie Yost cleaned the sacks with a double.

Joost's twelfth round tripper of the year came after a double by Kellner in Philadelphia's third. The Senators tallied once more in the sixth on Mickey Vernon's double and Sam Dente's single.

Chitwood Show Postponed At Delaware Valley Track; Stock Cars Return To Action Tomorrow

Joie Chitwood's Auto Daredevils were forced to postpone last night's scheduled performance at the Delaware Valley Speedway due to the heavy late afternoon rains that made the track virtually impossible for the stuntmen to present their entire routine of 27 events.

Promoter Lou Williams and Charles "Buddy" Wagner, Chitwood unit manager, decided to re-schedule the entire performance for next Thursday night, at 8:30. In the event of rain next week, arrangements have been made to hold the show over until the follow night, Friday.

The entire troupe of stuntmen, including Christie "Snooks" Wentzel, sensational Reading daredevil, who will attempt a world's record leap, ramp-to-ramp, in a new 1951 Ford stock sedan when the show returns; and Frank "Frankenstein" Frakes, so-called "Human Bomb" who blasts himself with nine sticks of dynamite while encased in a coffin-like structure, were on hand for last night's performance.

The Chitwood daredevils travelled here from Albany, N. Y.; where they performed before a capacity crowd of 7,000 spectators on Thursday night.

However, the newly constructed track near the East Stroudsburg-Stroudsburg airport will feature its regular Sunday stock car show tomorrow, with a total of 50 entries, including many of the top drivers in Monroe County and surrounding area slated to battle for the top prize.

The first qualifying heat is listed for 2:00 p.m.

Yanks Gain Nod Over Bosox On Strength Of DiMaggio's Eighth Inning Hit Scoring Rizzuto

New York (AP)—Joe DiMaggio's eighth inning double scored Phil Rizzuto with the winning run last night as the New York Yankees defeated the Boston Red Sox, 2-1, behind Vic Raschi's three-hit pitching. It was that righthanded ace's twelfth win against four losses.

The Yanks collected seven hits off lefty Maury McDermott and broke a 1-1 tie in the fifth when "Hank" Bauer lashed a two-bagger into left field and countered on Gil McDougald's single in that same locality.

Lone Score

Two of the three Boston safeties against Raschi came in the fourth, which Johnny Pesky opened with a single to right. After Billy Goodman grounded out, Ted Williams singled in Pesky for the lone Boston counter.

The only other hit gave up by Raschi was a McDermott single with two out in the fifth. But catcher Yogi Berra immediately picked McDermott off first with a lightning throw to Johnny Mize.

Ailing Lemon Defeats Tigers

Cleveland (AP) — Bob Lemon pitched the Cleveland Indians to a 4-1 win over Detroit last night despite an abscessed tooth and an upset stomach.

The tooth was lanced and packed earlier in the day, but he became sick to his stomach and had to call time out in the sixth inning after Dick Kryhoski and Hoot Evers had singled and Aaron Robinson had walked, loading the bases.

Only Run

Lemon walked Charlie Keller after he returned to the mound, forcing in the Tigers' only score. After that he was never in serious trouble in registering his eighth win against six losses.

The Tribe got all of its runs in the fourth on two doubles, a single, a passed ball, and an error and a walk. Larry Doby doubled home Bob Avila who walked. Johnny Lipon then fumbled Luke Easter's grounder, sending Doby to third from where he scored on the passed ball. Harry Simpson doubled in Easter and then scored himself on Jim Hegan's single.

It was the third straight win for Lemon over Detroit and the third straight he had allowed the Tigers only one run.

Cleveland has beaten the Tigers seven times in a row. For Detroit's Dizzy Trout it was the tenth loss against three wins.

No Little League Play

Rain and wet grounds forced postponement of last night's East Stroudsburg Little League game between the National Bank and Methodists, listed for the East Stroudsburg Payground. No date has been set for making up the contest.

Mat Show Postponed

Tafton — Wrestling matches scheduled to be held here at Billy Soose's arena were postponed last night due to rain which fell over the area late yesterday. No new date has been set for the matches at this Lake Wallenpaupack resort.

Laresen Shows Ability At Wimbledon

Wimbledon (AP)—Artful Art Laresen, the latest racquet wizard from California, continued yesterday to demonstrate to Wimbledon fans how he won last year's American title as he turned back another good player with a minimum of effort to reach the quarter-final round of the All-England championships.

The wiry little lefthander, casually mixing soft lobs with pinpoint drives into the corners, again kept complete control of the court in subduing Torsten Johannsson of Sweden's Davis Cup team, 6-3, 7-5, 6-4.

Stars

Three other international stars—Frank Sedgman and Ken McGregor of Australia and Eric Sturgess, the steady South African—accompanied the American champion into the round of eight. The remaining fourth round matches, three of them involving Americans, are scheduled today.

McGregor was the only one of yesterday's winners to drop a set. He eliminated Paul Remy of France, 6-4, 3-6, 6-3, 64. Sedgman, the number one seed, needed less than an hour to crush Fausto Gardini, the young Italian who Thursday upset Gardnar Mulloy of Miami. The one-sided scores were 6-0, 6-2, 6-1.

Sturgess, who defeated Sedgman in last week's London championships at Queen's Club brushed aside Bernard Destremau of France, 6-2, 6-3, 6-2.

America's ball-pounding women stars continued to dominate their field as the first week of the tennis fortnight neared its end without a single casualty among the seven seeded players from across the water.

Steele To Hurl For League-Leader

Rain forced postponement of last night's game between Pocono A.C. and Stockertown at Gordon Giffels field, but the charges of Manager John Schoonover are hopeful of at least protecting their half-game lead in the Blue Mountain league standings when East Bangor makes an appearance on the same field tomorrow at 2 p.m.

Ray Steele, ace of the Pocono A.C. staff, will be called upon to do the pitching for the league-leader, and will face one of the hardest hitting teams in the circuit when he toes the rubber against the third place organization, which at the present time is only one-half game off the pace. The game starts at 2 p.m.

Closely Matched

In two previous meetings each team has won a game and both will be anxious to break their individual deadlock.

The remainder of tomorrow's schedule will feature Tatamy at West Bangor, Portland at Stockertown and Johnsonville at Roseto. Roseto, only one-half game behind Pocono A.C., will be seeking to move back into the number one spot by trouncing the cellar-dwellers.

Stockertown will make up a rained out contest at Tatamy on Tuesday, at 6:15 p.m., while the circuit presents a full schedule on the Fourth of July.

Wednesday's slate will feature West Bangor at Pocono A.C., East Bangor at Tatamy, Portland at Stockertown and Johnsonville at Roseto. All games will begin at 2:30 p.m.

Pocono Lake Quits League

Lack Of Players Cited As Reason

Tobyhanna — Pocono Lake has withdrawn from the Pocono Mountain league for the remainder of the season, it was announced here last night by Harold Kresge, president of the circuit. The reason for Pocono Lake's decision to quit the league was given as the lack of players on the club's roster.

The Pocono Lake contingent has had trouble fielding a team on several occasions this year, being forced to forfeit two games and on one occasion borrowed four players from Reeders, in order to take part in the first contest of the campaign.

Kresge was informed last night that Pocono Lake would be unable to meet further commitments this season and the league president ruled that all teams scheduled to play Pocono Lake would draw byes for the remainder of the campaign.

A meeting will be held at a later date to decide on a manner in which to handle the games as far as the standings are concerned.

Tomorrow's schedule will feature Barrett at home with Analomink providing the opposition. The second contest on the list finds Lake Harmony moving into the home domain of undefeated Kunkletown, a team that will be searching for its eighth straight victory.

Schedule

The third contest on the agenda will find Saylorsburg playing at Reeders while Pocono Lake's meeting with Tobyhanna is now off.

Last but far from least, tomorrow's schedule will find Tannersville tangling with West End A.C. at Gilbert.

Kunkletown's invasion of Saylorsburg will feature the Fourth of July schedule, while Tannersville plays at Barrett and Analomink is listed to play Tobyhanna, while Lake Harmony meets West End A.C. on the latter's home field.

Pocono Lake's scheduled clash with Reeders is now off the books.

Sunrise Speedway Institutes New Policy Of Paying Expenses To First Twenty On Track

Blakeslee — Pocono Sunrise Speedway will feature a double-header in stock car racing during the next few days, presenting a regular Sunday program tomorrow then coming up with a gala Fourth of July card on Wednesday. Both programs will get underway with the drop of starter Ed Perluke's green flag for the opening of the first qualifying heat, at 2:30 p. m.

The first 20 cars making an appearance at the Sunrise Speedway each race day will receive guaranteed expenses, if they aren't fortunate enough to be one of the prize winners. The programs are open to all qualified stock cars and drivers that wish to participate.

Policy

Track director George Perluke's policy of open competition will bring together some of the top stock car jockeys in the east on this half-mile oval with the banked turns.

Headlining the speed program for tomorrow will be Joe Cryan, Oxford, N. J., who is only speedster able to chalk up two feature-event victories at the Blakeslee oval this season. Lew Lindbuechler, Mountain Top; Mike Muffley, Lehighton; Bob Ferdinand, Drums; Don Natt, Sugarloaf; Joe Mushlitz, Bethlehem, and Grant Moulthrop, Lehighton, will be a few of the top stars in tomorrow's shows.

Rain Hinders Local School

Rain washed out yesterday's baseball school, sponsored by the Philadelphia Phillies, at Gordon Giffels field, after 29 hopeful diamond stars had registered for the second day's session.

The school, scheduled to be a three-day affair, will hold its final session today, from 10 a. m. to 1 p. m.

Staff

Bill "Cy" Morgan, veteran scout for the Phillies, is in charge of the school and is being assisted by Jack Kist, East Stroudsburg High diamond coach; Jerry Stulgaitis, High baseball mentor, and Marty Baldwin, local sportsman.

Today's session will be open to any boy, anywhere as long as he is between 16 and 23 years-of-age.

Ohio State Pair Reaches Final

Columbus, O., (AP) — Ohio State's number one and two golfer, Tom Nieporte and Don Johnson, yesterday shot their way into the National Collegiate Golf championship finals.

Nieporte, OSU's number one man, was deadly with his ap-Buster Reed of North Texas State, two up. Jonnson, who was proach shots as he eliminated sworn into the Air Force this morning, put out his semi-final opponent — Notre Dame's Tom Matey, two and one.

Action

Nieporte and Johnson tee off in the 36-hole finals at 9 a. m. today in what is believed to be the first NCAA championship match between two opponents from the same school.

Pirates Recall Infielder

Pittsburgh (AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates yesterday recalled second baseman Monty Basgall from Indianapolis of the American Association. Basgall, 29, was optioned by the Bucs to Indianapolis May 16.

Your Horoscope Today

By FRANCIS DRAKE

SATURDAY, JUNE 30, 1951

March 21 to April 20 (Aries)—An unusual planetary setup favoring unusual yet sound undertakings, at same time urging proper caution not to exceed your capacity nor spend beyond means. Interesting day.

April 21 to May 20 (Taurus)—You could find it profitable now to add improved methods and equipment to better and speed production, but do be mindful of financial risks. Dare to venture in fields which offer true benefits.

May 21 to June 21 (Gemini)—Day should be good for travel for business or government interests, for seeking and granting favors IF they are executed. All sound interests okayed but do be sensibly careful, moderate.

July 22 to July 23 (Cancer)—Favorable for essential changes, to improve your status or quality of your output, also for general improvements. But some aspects today also stress need for investigation in what you do.

July 24 to August 23 (Leo)—Your Sun and Uranus both now augur for new benefits, pleasant news, or maybe surprises for Leoites, especially if you rate them. Be considerate of others less favored today.

August 23 to September 23 (Virgo)—Mercury stresses extra care in written matters, important decisions. Bright ideas may not be plentiful, nor those that are accepted, but keep cheerfully on, you won't miss.

September 24 to October 23 (Libra)—Day may not satisfy all personal desires but are these always for our ultimate good? Moderation and some extra care about details should keep you on profitable road. Rest, recreate, too.

October 24 to November 22 (Scorpio)—In your free time today, get needed rest and some healthy recreation. If steady work is on your program, do it without worry or strain. System will help make everything easier.

November 23 to December 22 (Sagittarius)—On whole friendly aspects for wholesome matters and for new (if useful) and unique activities that will benefit some worthy undertaking, people, government. But care in general!

December 23 to January 21 (Capricorn)—Top gains are for loyalty, sincerity and justifiable ambition. These assets used rightly increase popularity, aid one's income, help everyone. Be your true self and gain.

January 22 to February 20 (Aquarius)—You have favorable rays from your Uranus which can be most encouraging if you employ your talents and capability as you should. No extremes, but do be soundly original, alert.

February 21 to March 20 (Pisces)—Extra caution is stressed in matters strictly confidential; handling chemicals, oils, beverages, all liquids. Creative and useful inventions and improvements highly sponsored and needed.

YOU BORN TODAY have many and varied gifts which should be developed daily. Use these well for your advancement, to gain both spiritual and temporal benefits. Study to reach the heights; be amenable to sound suggestions, helpful advice. We can all learn and should be good listeners if we wish also to be heard. You have an innate gift for interesting conversation, for entertaing people. Little children and old folks like you—if living true to your best qualities and heeding God's laws, you are an esteemed, enthusiastic citizen. Local Lions Return From Convention

Lions and ladies of the local area returned yesterday from the international convention held in Atlantic City with a record gathering of 50,000 men and women in attendance.

In the local party were District Governor and Mrs. Elton Hall, President William P. Deering, Alternate Milton Demetriou, wife and daughter of Stroudsburg; Deputy District Governor Sidney Effross, President and Mrs. Bert Transue, Portland; President and Mrs. Harry J. Drennan, Barrett; President and Mrs. Ralph Ackerman, East Bangor.

The convention, which had been highlighted by the brilliant international parade on Monday, came to a climax Thursday night with the "international review" held at Convention hall. The international family of Lionism, including officers and their ladies were grouped in a section of the balcony, where they were spotlighted and introduced.

In the same auditorium yesterday, Montgomery Nute of Kennett Square, Pa., destined by Pennsylvania Lions to ultimately fill the presidential chair was elected third vice president and given a great ovation.

The supreme spot in Lionism went to First Vice President Harold P. Nutter of Camden, N.J., who succeeded President H. C. Petry Jr. of Carrizo Springs, Texas. When his election was announced, the auditorium was invaded by New Jersey bands and delegates, who headed a tremendous procession.

The convention next year will be held in Mexico City. Mexican, Central America and South American Lionism had prominent roles in this year's convention.

At the final session all the new district governors, including Elton Hall of Stroudsburg, were introduced to International Lionism.

Camp Weygadt Opens Sunday; 400 Register For Season

Camp Weygadt will open its 28th year as a scout reservation tomorrow under the auspices of the Delaware Valley Area Council, Boy Scouts of America.

Seventy-five scouts are registered for the first two-week period. Four hundred scouts have registered to date for the camp's six-week season.

Announcing some of the highlights for the coming season, Walter S. Culpepper, scout executive, said that the summer program will be highlighted by a court of honor every Saturday night. Other events on schedule include canoe trips up the Delaware river to Port Jervis, N. Y.; sunrise religious services on Mount Tamani every two weeks; and three-day skyline hikes through the New Jersey hills.

ATTRACTIVE in halter and shorts, Broadway actress Elaine Stritch cools off after a one dollar fine was imposed by a New York judge, who ruled her attire too scanty for Central Park. When His Honor remarked that "a beautiful girl like you could cause a riot," pert Elaine retorted, "I was there all day and nothing happened."

Negro Gets Reprieve At Eleventh Hour

New Orleans (AP)— A U. S. Supreme court mandate yesterday halted the execution of Paul Washington, 25-year-old Negro, one hour and 20 minutes before he was scheduled to die for the rape of a white woman.

At the time, Washington, shaved and shorn for his date with Louisiana's portable electric chair, sat moodily in his cell of the Jefferson parish (county) jail at Gretna, across the Mississippi river from New Orleans.

He had eaten his last meal there, a few feet from the spot where the electric chair was set up yesterday in readiness for the execution.

When told that U. S. Supreme Court Justice Douglas had granted him a stay of execution, Washington merely smiled and said nothing, jail attaches reported.

Washington had been scheduled to die between noon and 3 p. m. (CST). It is customary in Louisiana to conduct executions as soon as possible after noon. It was 10:40 a. m. (CST) when word of the execution stay reached the jail.

Douglas granted the stay in Washington after one of his colleagues, Justice Burton refused to act late last night.

The stay will be effective until the Supreme court at its next term beginning Oct. 1 acts finally on Washington's case.

Washington's attorney contended the Negro was not properly represented at his trial on the rape charge, that he had been illegally arraigned and that confessions were forced from him.

Extended Forecast

OPS Approves Increase In Milk Prices

Beginning Sunday, the price of milk in Monroe county and other parts of the Allentown (Lehigh) milk marketing area will be 22 cents a quart to consumers.

The Office of Price Stabilization yesterday approved State Milk Control commission orders boosting the price of milk one cent a quart in five eastern Pennsylvania areas—Harrisburg, Lancaster, Allentown, Reading and York—and one-half cent more in Philadelphia and its suburban area.

Approval by the OPS came as the Federal price control setup was hotly debated in Congress.

Chairman H. N. Cobb of the Milk commission said the approval made only one change in the commission's price order. The OPS asked that the price of skim milk in Philadelphia be decreased by one-eighth of a cent a quart. The State agency agreed.

In addition to setting the retail price at 22 cents a quart, the order provides payment of $5.85 a hundredweight (46½ quarts) for producers in the Lehigh marketing area.

Young People Seek Funds For Institute

The young people of the youth fellowship groups of the East Stroudsburg Methodist church continue in their efforts to reach their goal to pay more than half the expense for 25 of their group to attend a week on top of Bush mountain, on the grounds of the Pocono Plateau Christian association.

This week of "Pocono institute" has become a tradition in the church, and although many of the young people cannot attend because of their employment this summer, nonetheless everyone of them lend a hand to raise the funds which sends a fine representative group for the week of July 21 to 28.

Tonight they have planned an "outdoor festival" on the lawn located between the church and parsonage. This is similar to the former "ice cream socials" except that they have expanded and will serve hot dogs, punch, cake and pie alamode, in addition to the traditional ice cream. This event will begin at 7 p.m. and will continue until sold out.

In the event of inclement weather the festival will be transferred to the dining room of the church.

Congress Extends Controls But Bans Rollback Of Prices

Washington (AP) — Congress rushed through a bill extending the nation's economic controls for 31 days yesterday, but slapped an absolute ban on price rollbacks and most new price ceilings.

Final passage came less than 36 hours before all controls were due to expire at midnight tonight.

If President Truman signs the bill, a vast series of price rollbacks already ordered will have to be suspended.

The Office of Price Stabilization (OPS) estimated last night the ban on rollbacks would cost consumers about $5,000,000,000. Rollback orders affecting machinery, shoes, cotton textiles, and many other lines of manufactured goods were scheduled to go into effect July 2.

Several other orders were in the mill and would have been issued next month, OPS officials said.

Congress worked at top speed to ram through the eleventh hour extension.

The House initiated the stop-gap bill, adopting it on a voice vote after a roll call vote of 232 to 159 added a "status quo" amendment prohibiting all rollbacks and any new ceilings except for farm products which might reach parity price levels during the month.

A messenger rushed the emergency legislation to the Senate, where it was immediately approved by the Senate Banking committee and sent to the floor. Senate approval came within two hours of House passage.

There was little doubt that the President would sign the bill in order to keep his anti-inflation program alive, even on a restricted basis, until Congress completes work on a comprehensive new law.

There was no debate on the bill in the Senate. It sailed through on a voice vote with only a sprinkling of "noes."

The Senate passed a comprehensive new controls bill shortly before 4 a.m. yesterday, but the House ignored it to concentrate on the temporary extension measure.

House leaders decided there was not enough time left to work out a complete new controls law.

The Senate's general bill falls far short of giving the President the additional control powers he has urgently requested. Moreover, it takes away some of the administration's existing powers.

OPS jammed through a rollback order on aluminum scrap late yesterday, setting dollars and cents ceilings 30 to 50 percent below prevailing market prices.

Price Director Michael V. DiSalle signed the order a few minutes after Congress voted its no-rollback ban for July. OPS estimated the reduction would mean a multi-million-dollar saving to taxpayers, since aluminum is widely used in defense production.

Administration forces in the House put up some opposition to the anti-rollback provision, but they seemed to be holding their fire until the Senate bill comes before the House next week.

The Senate bill, passed by a vote of 71 to 10 after 16 hours of continuous debate, extends controls for eight months. Mr. Truman wanted a two-year extension.

The House vote on the no-rollback amendment found 97 Democrats and 135 Republicans supporting it, with 108 Democrats, 50 Republicans and one independent opposing it.

Eight Killed In Crash Of Navy Bomber

Key West, Fla. (AP) — A Navy patrol bomber crashed while taking off on a training flight yesterday and killed eight of the nine men on board.

The lone survivor suffered only a broken leg but could not be questioned immediately because of shock.

A Navy chief petty officer, S. Kitching, reached inside the wreckage and rescued a second han who died of injuries after reaching the hospital.

All bodies were recovered. Names were withheld pending notification of next of kin.

Three officers and six enlisted men were aboard the craft, a twin-engined PBM. The wreckage lay in 12 feet of water, with a part protruding above surface. Kitching and two sailors, Carl Bartlett and Eddie Vehnder, watched the takeoff from the naval seaplane base boathouse.

"She was clear of the water when the left wing suddenly went high and the plane cartwheeled," said Kitching. "We yelled 'crash' and got under way in two boats."

At the crash scene half a mile from the boat house, Bartlett's boat picked up the one man in sight—the only survivor—and sped him to shore.

Sergeant Fined In Fatal Beating

Washington (AP)—M/Sgt. Stanley Szary of Pittsburgh, was fined $100 yesterday in district court for manslaughter in the fatal beating of his wife here last February.

In imposing the fine on Szary, who is 35 and attached to Bolling Air Force base here, Judge Henry Schweinhaut said he did not think Szary should receive a jail sentence.

Szary's wife, Wilma, was beaten in their home here. The court was informed they had been drinking and Szary could recall no details of the beating. Schweinhaut said he was told Szary had a fine military record.

Szary had been indicted on a second degree murder charge but was allowed to plead to the lesser charge of manslaughter upon recommendation of an assistant U.S. attorney.

He has three small children.

Bodies Of Boys Found In Pond

Brookville (AP) —It was pretty hot working on the farm all day. So John Songer, 16, and Donald Shippen, 18, both of Brookville, decided to go for a swim in the farm pond of the older boy's uncle, Raymond Wilson.

When the boys did not return home Thursday night Wilson called the Brookville fire department. Wilson directed the firemen to the pond where Wilson said he accompanied the youths earlier before going back to the farm house. Firemen recovered the bodies of the two boys in about six feet of water.

Rice Crop Saved By Hard Rains

New Orleans (AP)— South Louisiana rice farmers gleefully watched lowering skies shower down rain yesterday and hoped there would be enough of it to save their $40,000,000 crop.

The rains, which began intermittently Thursday, continued throughout the night and began again yesterday. More than three inches fell in some spots, forming the first puddles of water farmers had seen since April 1.

Iranian Reds Demonstrate Against Truman Pleas For Moderation Of Grave Oil Crisis

Tehran, Iran (AP)—Red demonstrators denounced American appeals for moderation in the British-Iranian oil crisis yesterday and shouted "death to Truman," "death to Grady."

The efforts of Americans to solve the nationalization dispute were condemned by speakers before a pro-Communist crowd estimated at 10,000 in Parliament square as "the blackest, most disgusting interference in our history."

Both President Truman and Ambassador Henry F. Grady have urged a fresh try at negotiation to assure the continued flow of Iranian oil to the west. Time for fresh talks may be given by a move of the British-owned Anglo-Iranian Oil Co. yesterday to cut down its produtcion, which has been rapidly filling the last of its storage tanks in Abadan.

Iranian police made no effort to stop the demonstration, conducted by a Communist front called "the national society to fight imperialistic oil companies." Similar demonstrations, mainly aimed against the British, have been held in the past here on Friday, the Moslem Sabbath.

A resolution denounced the International Court of Justice at the Hague, the United Nations-backed tribunal which is hearing today Britain's demand for an injunction to prevent Iran from doing anything to worsen the dispute. The resolution said the court "is interfering in the nation's local affairs."

The Iranian government telegraphed the Hague yesterday it rejects the British petition and wishes the court to declare the dispute is not within the court's jurisdiction.

Eleven judges, including Green H. Hackworth of the United States, met privately at the Hague to consider the petition. Attorney General Sir Frank Soskice is to argue Britain's case. Iran's minister to the Hague, Hossein Navab, announced a three-man Iranian commission was flying from Tehran with a copy of the Iranian appeal. Navab said he did not know whether they would appear at the hearing.

A spokesman for Britain's Tehran embassy implied the threatened withdrawal of British technicians, who have spurned a bid to get on the Iranian national oil payroll, may be delayed a month.

NPA To Lift Ban On Spare Auto Tires

Washington (AP) — The National Production authority yesterday announced it probably will lift its ban on spare tires for new cars by September 1 "and perhaps sooner."

NPA said the reason is the sharp cut in passenger car production starting July 1—which means fewer tires will be needed by auto manufacturers.

Date of the restoration can not be fixed, the agency said, until completion of a study of prospective rubber supply in the July-through-September quarter.

Sale of new cars equipped with a fifth tire was forbidden on April 1, to divert rubber into tires for trucks, buses and tractors. The ban aroused protests from motorists, who had to pay more for the tire, when bought separately, than if it had been original equipment.

Gambling Probe In City's Hands

Harrisburg (AP)—Col. C. M. Wilhelm, State police commissioner, yesterday closed the door on an investigation of charges of gambling in Oil City.

"It's a matter for local authorities, strictly," Wilhelm told a reporter. "We are not going in there over the local people's heads and that's all there is to it."

Wilhelm's statement grew out of a request by an Oil City minister, Rev. H. C. Stuart, several months ago to Gov. John S. Fine.

Red Buildup Is Ominous, Says Official

Washington (AP) — Secretary of Defense Marshall said yesterday that the Communist world is staging a "rather ominous" buildup of its military strength.

As a vital part of the American effort to match this buildup, Marshall said, the nation must expect to spend at least $6,300,000,000 a year in each of the next three years—a total of almost $19,000,000,000—on military aid to its Allies.

Marshall expressed the opinion this will have to be done no matter how the Korean cease-fire negotiations result. Apart from "the tragedy of the casualties," he told the House Foreign Affairs committee, Korea is only one incident in the world picture, and:

"The world picture requires us to continue building up our strength and in some ways to increase it."

Marshall testified in favor of the administration's program of $8,50,000,00 in foreign military and economic aid during the fiscal year beginning tomorrow.

Of this sum, $6,300,000,000 is earmarked for military aid alone, most of it to Western Europe. Secretary of State Acheon tetified Thursday that economic aid, too, must be continued for two or three years.

Government To Investigate

Philadelphia (AP)—The Justice department yesterday told the University of Pennsylvania it has ordered a sweeping investigation of televising college football games.

At the same time, a dpeartment spokesman made it clear that the government has not approved the National Collegiate Athletic Association plan of limiting football TV.

Kutztown Plans Folk Festival

Kuztown, (AP) — Folk culture of southeastern Pennsylvania will be on display when the second annual Pennsylvania Dutch folk festival gets under way at the Kutztown fairgrounds July 4 to 8, inclusive.

The festival is sponsored by folklore center, Franklin and Marshall College, under the direction of Dr. Alfred L. Shoemaker, head of the department of American folklore.

The keystone of the folk culture in the Pennsylvania Dutch country is good cooking, and this the folk festival will highlight.

Folk hymns of Pennsylvania's plain people, arts, crafts, myths of the Dutch, sports, and games and many other traditions will be visibly displayed.

Thai Marines Kidnap Prime Minister

Manila, Saturday (AP)— Premier Pibulsonggram, seized by rebelling Navy forces in Bangkok, was reported today to have broadcast a plea for a cease-fire in street fighting in the Thailand capital. He was reported to be held prisoner aboard a warship in Bangkok harbor.

Washington (AP) — The American embassy at Bangkok wired the State department yesterday that Prime Minister Plaek Pibulsonggram of Thailand (Siam) was taken captive there by a Thai Marine unit.

The message said that the Prime Minister was "seized" during a ceremony in connection with the transfer to the Thai government of the U. S. dredge Manhattan at the royal landing in Bangkok.

Shortly afterward, gunfire was heard in the northern part of the city, the embassy said.

It added there was no report of molestation of Americans.

No details of what happened to the prime minister were given.

The State department announced the development last night and added:

"The U. S. government is deeply concerned for the welfare of the prime minister. The significance of this development is not yet apparent and the U. S. government awaits further details."

Thailand's premier has espoused an anti-Communist policy and recently praised the United Nations stand in Korea. But for the U.N. action, he said, his tiny kingdom and the surrounding countries might have fallen into the clutches of the Chinese Communists.

A dispatch from Associated Press Correspondent Fred Hampson in Hong Kong last February 20 said suspicion was growing there that a Communist coup d'etat was brewing against the Thailand government.

Hampson wrote that former Premier Pridi Phanaomyong, who headed the U. S.-sponsored underground in Thailand during World War Two, was being connected by rumor with the talk of a coup d'etat.

Pridi fled the country in 1947 when the present premier took over the government in an actual coup d'etat. Hampson's dispatch said Pridi has been reported secretly rallying his followers inside Thailand.

Communist China has accused the Thai government in its propaganda broadcasts of "large scale persecution" of 3,000,000 Chinese in that country.

Thailand's former king, Ananda Mahidol, was assassinated in the royal palace at Bangkok in 1946.

The present prime minister of the country collaborated with the Japanese war machine in World War Two, opening the way for the Japanese to sweep down the Malayan peninsula.

Removed from power after the war, he came back to head the government in 1947 after a bloodless coup.

U. N. Calls Upon Reds To Attend Peace Meeting

Tokyo, Saturday (AP) — Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway today called on the Communist commander in Korea to name a representative to attend an armistice conference.

The supreme United Nations commander broadcast his message from Tokyo at 8 a.m. (6 p.m. Friday, EDT).

It proposed that the meeting, which might end more than a year of bloody conflict, be held on a Danish hospital ship, the Jutlandia.

The site would be the harbor at Wonsan, Red-held port off the Korean east coast. Wonsan itself has been reduced to ruin by ceaseless Allied naval bombardment.

Ridgway addressed his message simply to "commander in chief, Communist forces in Korea." The Korean commander-in-chief and premier is Kim Il Sung. The Chinese field commander is Gen. Peng Teh-Huai.

Gen. Matthew Ridgway

"As commander-in-chief of the United Nations command," Ridgway's broadcast said, "I have been instructed to communicate to you the following:

"I am informed that you may wish a meeting to discuss an armistice providing for the cessation of hostilities and all acts of armed force in Korea, with adequate guarantees for the maintenance of such armistice.

"Upon receipt of word from you that such a meeting is desired, I shall be prepared to name my representative. I would also at that time suggest a date at which he could meet with your representative. I propose that such a meeting could take place aboard a Danish hospital ship in Wonsan harbor."

There was speculation at U.S. Eighth Army headquarters that Lt. Gen. James A. Van Fleet, Eighth Army commander, would be the U.N. representative.

Thus Ridgway checked squarely to the Communists the next move to halt he war that began June 25, 1950, with the invasion of the Republic of South Korea by Communist North Koreans.

The U. S. government yesterday sent general instructions to Ridgway on negotiations for the ceasefire. Contents were not disclosed.

In Washington it was reported that all the Allies — presumably excepting the Republic of Korea —had agreed to the step. South Korea officially is opposed to any cease-fire around the 38th parallel, old boundary line between North and South Korea.

Russia set the ball rolling last Saturday by suggesting a conference to end the fighting. Jacob Malik, Soviet delegate to the United Nations, made the proposal in New York.

Wonsan, the proposed site of a conference, is on the northeast Korean coast. It is about 80 miles north of the 38th parallel.

The harbor was the scene of an Allied landing last fall in the drive to the northern boundary of North Korea.

When the Allies were forced to withdraw because of Chinese Communist intervention in the war, the Allies began shelling and bombing the port. Allied warships have hammered Wonsan targets for 134 consecutive days through yesterday. It is a funnel point for supplies from Manchuria.

Ridgway's headquarters would not say how the broadcast to the Communists was made.

It was believed in Tokyo that it would be hours — perhaps even a day or two — before something is heard from either the North Koreans or the Chinese. Some in Tokyo thought it was even possible the answer might come through Moscow.

Across the Japan sea in Korea there still was bloody fighting on the western front. Action had slackened elsewhere.

Allies Smash Red Attack In Central Korea

Tokyo, Saturday (AP)— Allied artillery smashed attacks by two Communist companies in central Korea early today—hours before the official bid for an armistice in the year-long war.

A lull had settled over most of the 100-mile battlefront yesterday. But shortly before midnight, the Reds struck northeast of Kumhwa. Eighth Army headquarters reported they were hurled back.

Kumhwa is 17 air miles north of Parallel 38 and at the southeast corner of the Reds' shattered "iron triangle." Frightful Red losses in two ill-fated spring offensives from that triangle preceded Moscow's suggestions for field negotiations.

There was a bitter but localized fight yesterday for a hill in the west, and signs of stiffening Red resistance in the center. But the overall situation added up to a lull.

A hill north of Parallel 38 in the west changed hands six times. At nightfall, the Reds held it.

In the mountainous center, 1,000 Reds stood firm against Allied patrols probing the area of Kumsong, a Red buildup point 20 miles north of 38.

Miners On Vacation

Washington (AP) — The 400,000 soft coal miners and 80,000 hard coal miners begin a 10-day vacation today under terms of John L. Lewis' contract with the nation's coal operators. The miners will receive a $100 payment for the time they spend on vacation.

Plane Plunges Into Lake Erie

Ashtabula (AP)— An amphibious plane owned by General Tire & Rubber Co., Akron, O., plummeted into Lake Erie near here late yesterday.

The Coast Guard reported there were two survivors, pilot Ted Migdal and co-pilot E. D. Stafford. There was one passenger, but he was not found.

Migdal and Stafford were picked up by a speedboat and taken to Geneva hospital, where their condition was reported "fair."

The hospital said they identified the passenger as David G. Hennessy, of Augusta, Ky., who came to Akron seven months ago as an engineer for Goodyear Aircraft Corp.

U. S. To Insist On Observers On Both Sides Of Truce Line

Washington (AP)—The United States is prepared to insist that any armistice with the Communists in Korea should provide for United Nations observation of armed forces on both sides of the truce line.

Informed officials gave this word to newsmen yesterday as Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway, UN commander in the Korean war, formally offered the Communists a chance to attend armistice talks.

Emphasizing the American position that any effective armistice must be as secure as possible against violation, officials here said there are only two real guarantees:

One—Full information about the activities of the military forces on the other side once the armistice begins to make sure they are not engaged in a build-up or planning a surprise attack.

Two—The military capacity to do something about the situation if information indicates that the opposing force is up to some trickery.

Authorities familiar with the whole background of the Ridgway statement told reporters:

Ridgway's proposition was backed up not only by the American government but by the other 15 governments with armed forces in Korea.

The other governments—whose diplomats met at the State department yesterday afternoon — gave general approval to the step which Ridgway took, but the U. S. took responsibility for preparing the instructions sent to him before he issued his message.

The South Korean Republic government, which has been bitterly critical of the idea of ending the war short of the unification of all Korea, apparently was informed of the proposed action.

Msgr. McHugh To Serve At Promised Land

Most Rev. William J. Hafey, D. D., bishop of the Diocese of Scranton, will dedicate a new church under the Pocono Catholic Missions group at Promised Land Lake and State Park at 4 p.m. Sunday.

Rt. Rev. Msgr. C. A. McHugh, V.F., is pastor of the church. Msgr. McHugh has built many churches throughout the Diocese of Scranton.

In 1933 when CCC camps were established at Promised Land, Msgr. McHugh conducted missions for the boys. Many have returned to this resort center which added to the necessity for the new church.

In 1946 the first mass was offered at Promised Land by Father Patrick, C. P. on the lake beach before 300 people. In 1947 mass was offered in Promised Land inn and continued until last fall.

The new church will seat 450 persons with a maximum capacity of 600. Mass will be offered every Sunday at noon. The community is invited to the dedication.

A NEW CHURCH IN THE POCONO Catholic Missions group will be dedicated today at 4 p.m. at Promised Land by Most Rev. William H. Hafey, D.D., bishop of Scranton. Rt. Rev. Msgr. C. A. McHugh, V. Methodist Church To Begin Summer Schedule On Sunday

The stepped-up Summer program of the Stroudsburg Methodist church will officially open Sunday morning with the administration of the Summer Communion at 11 a.m. by the minister, Rev. Walter S. Johnston. Included in the plans for this season is the erection of a much needed addition to the Methodist property for the carrying on of the growing Scout activities sponsored by the men of the church. In this new building, much needed facilities for the work of the Childrens' division of the Church school, John R. Wilson, general superintendent, will be provided. The plan includes also a new church office and minister's study and consultation room.

The Summer program includes also the initiating of Sunday evening services to begin on the first Sunday of August and continue thereafter throughout the Fall and Winter seasons without interruption. Those who love to sing and those who realize their need for spiritual reinforcement for the living of life in these trying days will look forward to these vesper services.

At the communion service Sunday, the large chorus choir under the leadership of Albert J. Fregans, minister of music, will lead the congregation in the beautiful ritual service authorized and suggested by the General conference of the Methodist church.

The Summer program will conclude as the Fall program takes over with the congregational Summer rally service on Labor day Sunday. Details of that special service will be made public at a later date. Dr. Paul H. Shiffer, lay leader of the Stroudsburg Methodist church, is working closely with the minister as co-chairman of the Summer program.

16 Found Guilty Of Blue Law Violation At Gilbert Track

Case Follows Operation Of Track Sunday

Kresgeville—Justice of the Peace Nathantiel Gruber, Gilbert, found 16 men guilty of violating a section of the Blue Laws in connection with operations at the newly established stock-car race track—known as the West End Speedway—at Gilbert. Hearings were held in a classroom of Polk Township High school.

The action followed a stormy hearing during which statements were made that racing would continue again this Sunday and perhaps start earlier in the morning.

Two State police officers from the Brodheadsville substation were present, not in the role of prosecutors, but ever alert during the proceedings which at times waxed hot.

District Attorney Detleff A. Hansen was present to represent the Commonwealth. Attorney Russell L. Mervine was defense counsel.

Two prosecutors were Elmer Kreger and LeRoy Hinton, both of Gilbert. They represented the group of some 400 persons who signed a petition deploring location of the track near churches in Gilbert, as well as people of the churches.

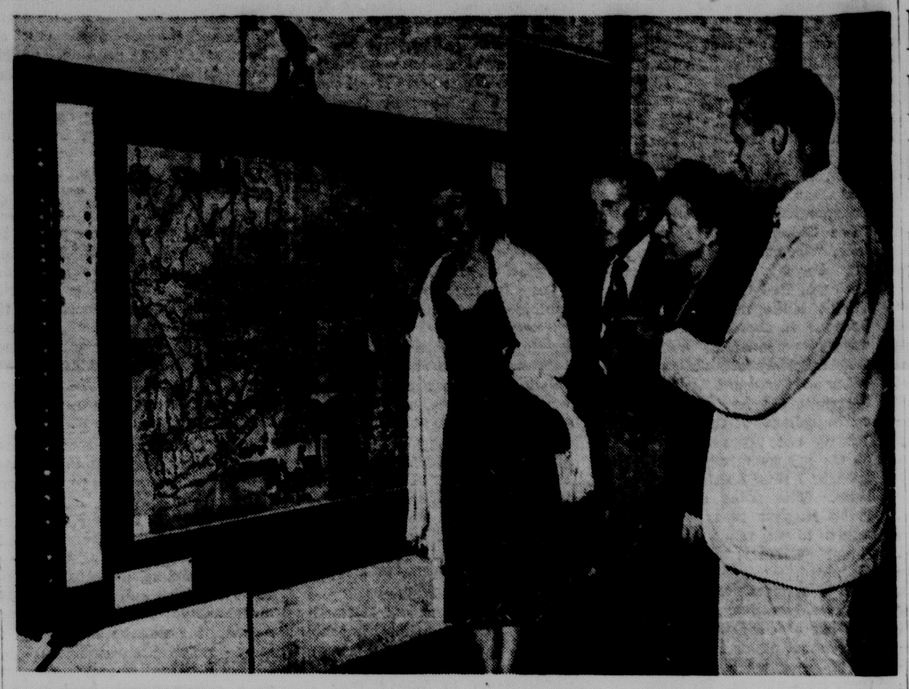

Tempers rose over the Blue Law prosecution under section 944.4 of the penal code which allowed imposition of a fine not exceeding $4 plus costs of prosecution.

Actually, the prosecution was based on racing operations at the track last Sunday and from statements made at the hearing racing will continue this Sunday.

Most of the defendants were from outside Monroe county. Those prosecuted included:

Joseph Ribaldi, Kunkletown RD; Charles Frantz, Kunkletown RD; Roy Dorshimer, Kresgeville; Luther Muffley, Lehighton; Clarence Muffley, Weissport; William Muffley, Lehighton; Leon Snyder, Palmerton; Paul Snyder, Tamaqua RD; Carl Kresge, Kresgeville; Paul Balogach, Lehighton RD3; Charles Wuchter, Bath; Gene Yanick, Lehighton; Lester Merder, Tamaqua; Simon Brethen Jr., Palmerton; Warner Wildermuth, Palmerton; Simon Britton Jr., Palmerton.

Two of the defendants, Caesar Ribaldi, Kunkletown RD, and Lloyd Hansler, Kunkletown, were not present at the hearing and therefore no disposition was made of their cases. Action against the 19th man, Charles Hahn, Lehighton, was dropped because of the failure to identify him as having participated in the race last Sunday.

Heavy Rains Halt Search For Angler

Lake Wallenpaupack — Heavy rainfall here halted efforts yesterday to recover the body of Amos Noble Jr., 39, of 2402 Northampton St., Easton, one of two fishermen who drowned April 15.

Charles Gordon, a diver and his assistant Bernard Globeck, both of Wilkes-Barre, were present for diving attempts. Gordon was preparing to enter the lake when it was decided to halt operations because of rain.

Robert Tragus, lake superintendent for Pennsylvania Power & Light Co. and C. H. Ringledon, lake patrolman, pulled a Navy raft one mile up the lake from Spindler's Point. It was used as a base of diving operations.

Two State policemen from the Milford substation were present with about 20 spectators.

Body of Henry Confer, 35, of 528½ New St., Allentown, the other victim, was discovered last Tuesday floating about 80 feet from shore at Spindler's Point.

That body was found by Amos Noble, Sr., Easton, father of the missing man. Mr. Noble has spent every free moment searching for the body of his son since the drowning. The two men were thrown in about 45 feet of water when their boat capsized.

C Of C Seeks OPS Aid In Relieving Beef Shortage

The problem of adequate supplies of beef in this region, generally, and in certain specific communities of Monroe county brought about a move to seek some liberalization of Office of Price Stabilization regulations pending Congressional action on easing the situation.

As it appeared following a cursory survey conducted yesterday . . . to be followed up with careful studies next week . . . the situation here could improve, but everything pointed to a worsening of conditions.

Realizing that the Tobyhanna community population will soon be enlarged by a large number of trailer families of construction workers, the Pocono Mountains Chamber of Commerce moved to seek some aid in Washington to insure adequate supplies of beef and other meats for dealers in that region.

Retailers are under a rationed quota from distributors, although beef is available at "premium" prices, the investigation showed.

This county has about four slaughter houses. One of these is already reported closed because of the critical shortage and another is without authority to slaughter slaughter in 1950.

Slaughtering is permitted at the rate of about 80 per cent of the 1950 slaughtering rate. In the instance where the operator did not slaughter in 1950, because of ability to obtain beef and other meats, the operator is without a quota for 1951.

There is some local beef available for slaughtering which would ease the supply problem here, but with one slaughterer out of business and another without quota, the market is cut seriously.

Some indication of how the deliveries are affected is shown by a delivery of some 30 pounds of beef to a dealer in one of Monroe county's communities recently. A year ago the same time deliveries ran to 2,000 pounds.

Washington officials yesterday indicated the complaints are flooding them concerning similar situations all over the nation.

Kiwanis Club Dedicates Electric Map Of Poconos

An electric map sign of the Pocono Mountains was officially dedicated to service of the public yesterday by Stroudsburg Kiwanis club with the assistance of Miss Ruth Hussey, Pocono Mountains Laurel Queen and star of "The Royal Family" at Pocono Playhouse, Mountainhome.

Miss Hussey with Mrs. Rowena Stevens, operator of the Playhouse, and Dixie Lee, publicity director for the theater, were joined by Allan W. Keiper, representing Kiwanis club, and Lew Tyreman, divisional manager of James Hayden & Associates, Chicago, creators of the electric sign map.

The framed and heavily glassed electric map is attached to the Seventh St. side of the Stroudsburg Security Trust Co.

In order to make it of major service to tourists and vacationers entering this region, Kiwanis club has leased two parking meter spaces near the sign for $100 a year each. Travelers will be able to park free while they locate any spot in this region on the map.

Push buttons along the sides of the map allow the individual to light up many sections of the county and easily trace the best route. A red light burns constantly to denote the 7th and Main St. location, giving the individual his starting point.

Sponsoring advertisers, including numerous local businessmen, helped Kiwanis create the fund for the sign.

The club had the choice of taking an iron lung or a comparable sum of money as a result of the promotion. The money will be used by the club in its program of civic aid and betterment, or for similar community projects.

Prior to the formal dedication of the sign Miss Hussey, Mrs. Stevens, Dixie Lee were guests at a luncheon in the Penn-Stroud hotel with Mr. Keiper, Mr. Tyreman and Pocono Mountains Chamber of Commerce.

The Chicago firm has similar signs all over the nation from California to the East Coast and Maine to Florida. This sign has the largest map of any installed.

PARADOX OF MODERN CIVILIZATION

Time To Cool Tempers

The 1951 Legislature, whose record for longevity is better than for production, has gone home for a 10-day recess over the July 4 holiday. No break in the vexatious financial and tax impass is apparent.

The recess comes at a fortunate time. Chances of accomplishing much for the good of the state are slight, with temperatures and tempers as heated as they have been the last several days. Some progress on revenue and appropriations was made at the recess of several weeks ago. Hopefully, many look for cool and wise heads to return July 9 with an acceptable program.

Reconciliation of the widely divergent viewpoints enunciated this week by executive and legislative spokesmen is a major test for combined legislative ingenuity. Feeling has grown steadily that an income tax is doomed—and it must be.

The deadlock needs to be broken soon. Already it has monopolized too much time that should have gone into other features of a well-devised program. Much good legislation is in increasing jeopardy in an unseemingly rush for adjournment anticipated when agreement is reached on budgetary matters.

Federal Duty, Too

A congressional committee said a multitude of nasty things about administration and supervision of Pennsylvania's GI training school program. The slap is merited; but the charges don't add much to what was disclosed at hearings here and in Philadelphia.

The incompatability of a licensing official engaging in school operations was hit. The indictment added charges of inadequate supervision, sloppy ethics, improper acceptance of gifts, licensing of schools that shouldn't have existed.

The way now seems to be open to action by proper agency, state or federal. Some dismissals have taken place in the Pennsylvania Department of Public Instruction; some charges have been lodged. More of both may be dictated.

The situation is a disagreeable one for Pennsylvania. School operations in the state were second largest in the nation. That they were not in full accord with the lofty purposes that inspired the program is regretted. Let the chips fall where they may!

But while the Congressional committee is on the subject of criticism and chastisement, it is pertinent to ask: Why the ineffective federal check where so much money was involved?

Summer Solace

Now that summer is here, we would like to shuck our winter heavy-thinking cap and put on a light straw designed for hot weather worrying.

A man with sweat in his eye and a shirt stuck to his back is in no condition to solve the Iranian oil squabble, or straighten out Governor Fine's untouchable budget.

Rather he should gently work his brains on such puzzlers as, shall I mow the lawn now or wait for a cooler day?

A good front porch debate can be started over whether the convertible roadster or the old-time hammock is best suited for courting purposes.

Bring out the lawn chairs and tall frosted glasses, folks, it's going to be a busy summer.

The first ice yacht was built by Oliver Booth at Pougkeepsie, N.Y., in 1790.

American-manufactured soda crackers were introduced in 1865.

Try And Stop Me

By Bennett Cerf

Maybe a compositor on a big New York daily was careless. Maybe his sense of humor got the better of him. At any rate, the financial page that evening carried this intriguing item: "The Citizens and Southern Bank directors voted yesterday to pay shareholders an extra 25-cent 'cost-of-loving' dividend."

"I once had a boss," recalled Morey Amsterdam, "who was so cheap he docked my pay when I came in two minutes late." "What happened if you came in two minutes early?" asked his friend Dave Alber. "In that case," concluded Amsterdam bitterly, "he charged me rent."

Irving Hoffman brought back from Europe the story of a sad-eyed Czech peasant staring at a huge photograph of Stalin in a Prague window. "Who is this man whose picture I see every place I look?" he asked. His city friend answered, "Where have you been hiding, you fool? That's Josef Stalin, who saved us from the Nazis." The peasant said, "Aha! And is he still living?" "Of course he is," said the city man. "In htat case," asked the peasant, "why doesn't he save us from the Russians? "

Hollywood

By Gene Handsaker

Hollywood—"As Young As You Feel" is one of those improbable farces that are just believeable enough to leave everybody feeling younger—and better.

Monty Woolley, mustache points bristling, and Thelma Ritter, again weary housewife, steal most of the footage. Woolley lights into the notion that employes should be fired just because they've reached a compulsory retirement age.

Discharged from his press-feeding job in a printing plant because he's 65 ("The Beard" in real life will be 63 this Aug. 17), Woolley conceives a bold scheme. He dyes his white beard and hair black and dons a dark suit with white piping on the vest. Then he announces himself at the establishment as its wealthy out-of-town owners, whom nobody at the firm has met.

He tours the shops, then tells the directors what they need is to rehire the discharged veteran employes, for their skill and wisdom. Manager Albert Dekker agrees at once. At the manager's home, Woolley overwhelms Dekker's unhappy wife, Constance Bennett, with his charm. At the country club they dance a mean rhumba.

Woolley, still in disguise, addresses the Chamber of Commerce. Combat inflation and depression, he argues, by keeping the valuable senior citizens at work. The real plant owner, in his Manhattan boardroom, is flabbergasted. Stocks boom; labor troubles subside; goodwill for his industrial empire increases. Woolley, the imposter, has helped public relations immeasurably.

Allyn Joslyn plays Woolley's hyprochondriac son, with whom the old man resides.

These Days -- By George E. Sokolsky

McCarthy's 60,000 Words

Senator Joe McCarthy put together a study of General George Marshall from the record made by his friends. The immediate newspaper reports were based not upon the Senator's 60,000-word speech but on a supposition of what he might have said. In current journalism, this is called "high-lighting," and is generally inaccurate and distorted.

So I waited until I could get a full copy of the speech; read the whole of the 60,000 words and realized that the Senator had done a decent job of research and analysis. To make the matter clear, this is a partial bibliography that Senator McCarthy used in connection with this speech:

Winston Churchill, "The Hinge of Fate"; Admiral William Leahy, "I was there;" Cordell Hull, "Memoirs of Cordell Hull, Vol. II"; Henry L. Stimson, "On Active Service"; James F. Byrnes, "Speaking Frankly"; Sumner Welles, "Seven Decisions that Shaped History"; Edward Stettinius, Jr., "Roosevelt and the Russians"; Robert Sherwood, "Roosevelt and Hopkins"; Hanson Baldwin, "Great Mistakes of the War"; General H. H. Arnold, "Global Mission"; General Claire Chennault, "Way of a Fighter"; General Lucius Clay, "Decision in Germany"; General Mark Clark, "Calculated Risk"; General John R. Deane, "Strange Alliance"; General Omar Bradley, "The War America Fought" "Life Magazine," April 30, 1951; Edgar Ansel Mowrer, "The Nightmare of American Foreign Policy"; Jonathan Daniels, "The Man of Independence"; Freda Utley, "The China Story"; Henry Wallace, "Soviet Asia Mission"; Robert Payne, "Mao Tse-Tung — Ruler of Red China."

This bibliography is important because it shows not a single enemy—personal or political—of General Marshall, unless it be Winston Churchill with whom Marshall did not see eye-to-eye during phases of the war.

I do not propose here to indicate my own judgment of this speech; I shall do that at another time. The point of this piece is to suggest that the speech ought to be read; ought to be taken seriously; and should be discussed.

It is apparent throughout that Senator McCarthy, while not approving of General Marshall, devotes most of his long speech not to his own views but to quotations from others. He says:

" . . . There are various ways in which to arrive at an estimate of a wartime figure. It is helpful if he will write his own recollections, but that General Marshall has declined to do, giving, as I understand it, the explanation that to do so would injure certain reputations. If all public figures accepted that thesis, I may remark in passing, the public would be even less enlightened than it is at present. In pursuit of an estimate, one may also gain information from official records. The records of the Joint Chiefs of Staff and the Anglo-American combined Chiefs of Staff are not open to my perusal. In the end the inquirer will also find in the archives of the enemy, when they become available, evidence regarding the behavior of his own leaders. If the archives of the Kremlin are ever open to us, we shall have even deeper insight than we have today concerning the conduct of our current leaders. But as matters now stand, I have been forced to rely upon the memoirs and upon some other contemporary sources. I repeat that all these are friendly sources, and cannot be charged with attempts to injure General Marshall."

From that point on, McCarthy devotes himself to showing how General Marshall placed himself in posture to run the American participation in World War II, largely by quarrelling with Winston Churchill over where the second front was to be and how it was to be managed. It was Churchill versus Stalin, with Marshall on Stalin's side. Out of this particular decision, which Marshall finally won, Stalin gained mastery of Eastern Europe.

McCarthy then goes on to discuss Yalta, raising the issue for the 1952 campaign:

"It was Marshall who stood at Roosevelt's elbow at Yalta, urging the grim necessity of bribing Stalin to get into the war. It was Marshall who submitted intelligence reports to support his argument, suppressing more truthful estimates, according to Welles, in Hanson Baldwin's book on page 81, and keeping from the stricken Roosevelt knowledge that the Japanese were even then feeling for peace in acknowledgment of defeat."

It is interesting that some writers insist upon calling all this hindsight. They forget that men like Herbert Hoover, Hugh Gibson, Arthur Bliss Lane, William C. Bullitt, Joseph P. Kennedy and many others, including, if I may be so immodest, myself, had lots to say on this subject from 1938 until today. As one lists such names, it would be most unjust not to include Charles Lindbergh, who was pilloried and destroyed as a public figure because he recognized early the truth of Russian imperialism.

Sunday School Lesson

Scripture — Genesis 1:26-27; Matthew 8:1-4; 12:9-13; 18:1-6; 12-14; I Peter 1:17-19.

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL

In Genesis we read of man's creation. "God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness: and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and upon the earth.

"So God created man in His own image, in the image of God created He him; male and female created He them."

Isn't it odd that up through the ages man has not thought of his brother men as created in the image of the Almighty? If he had, how could he have treated him as he has?

And if all men realized that they are made in the image of God, how could they permit themselves to be so cruel, so unjust, so tyrannical to their brothers?

Are humans just beginning to realize their inheritance and to demand that they (every individual) should be treated with respect, love, brotherhood?

Jesus considered people worthy of help and healing. Every one who came to Him in faith and sincerity He aided—the beggar at the roadside, the rich man. Little children were His friends and He used a child to illustrate the humble spirit that men needed to achieve the kingdom of heaven.

Our first story that shows the spirit of Jesus is when a poor leper came to Him and begged to be cured. No one else would touch a person so afflicted. They would be afraid that they would become infected and "unclean." Jesus, the Christ, did not fear.

When the man, probably kneeling before Him, said: "Lord, if Thou wilt. Thou canst make me clean," Jesus put forth His hand, and touched him, saying, I will; be thou clean. And immediately his leprosy was cleansed."

Jesus told the man to tell no one, but to show himself to the priest, and to offer the gift Moses commanded.

On the Sabbath Jesus went into the synagogue, and there was a man with a withered hand. Thinking to accuse Him of sacrilege, the Pharisees asked Jesus if it was lawful to heal on the Sabbath.

What man of them, asked Jesus, owning a sheep, would not lift it out of a pit into which it had fallen, even if it was the Sabbath? "How much then is a man better than a sheep? Wherefore it is lawful to do well on the Sabbath days."

Jesus had the man stretch forth his arm and when he did so, the Lord healed it.

The disciples came to Jesus to ask, "Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?" seeking special favors for themselves. Jesus gave them a lesson then and there: He called a little child and put him among them. Then He said.

"Verily I say unto you, except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven.

"Whosoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven," and He went on to say that he who received such a little child in His name, received Him, and woe betide one who should offend such a little one.

In a recent lesson we had the parable of the man who had many sheep, and one went astray. The owner left the ninety and nine, and searched and searched until he found the lost one. Then he carried it home and gave a feast to his friends to celebrate the return of the lost lamb.

"He rejoiceth more of that sheep than of the ninety and nine which went not astray.

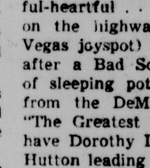

"Even so it is not the will of your Father which is in heaven, that one of these little ones should perish."

God, our Father made all of us and we all share the good things of the earth—or at least, such should be our heritage. When we do not share with others: when we are proud and treat them as if we thought they were not as good as we, we should remember Jesus in His brief sojourn on earth. He respected people for what they were. He "ate with publicans and sinners;" He talked to the woman of Samaria and taught her His gospel.

Why cannot we consider each person we meet as also made in God's image? Like little children, why are we not humble in spirit so that we too may inherit the kingdom of heaven. And why do we not act while we are here on earth as if we ARE made in God's image?

Memory verse—"For Thou hast made him but little lower than God, and crownest him with glory and honor."—Psalm 8:5.

Looking at Life

By Erich Brandeis

Brandeis

We are so gosh darn fond of peace that during my lifetime we have been fighting three wars for it.

But even if we have to kill millions of men, women and children in the pursuit of peace, will we ever really get it?

PEACE is not something we can buy or borrow or steal like a piece of furniture, a diamond bracelet, a mink coat.

PEACE is a state of mind.

There will never, NEVER be peace on this earth until the simple rules stated in the second chapter of St. Luke's is followed.

That rule is:—"on earth peace, good will toward men."

Some interpret it a bit differently as "on earth peace to men of good will."

But it really all amounts to the same thing.

There can be NO PEACE without good will.

But IS there good will among men?

Certainly not!

Take up your newspaper and see.

Read the paper of any town, any city—any village.

Fighting, Squabbling, Quibbling, Spite, Malicious gossip.

Take my own town of less than 12,000.

During the last few weeks seventeen people in local politics have either resigned or declared that they won't run for re-election. They have had enough. Too much fighting. Even the dog warden is in a political row.

The town folks are fighting about a new highway to be constructed.

They are having a row with the company that wants to bring in natural gas.

There is dissention and dissatisfaction in the Civil Defense organization.

Two partners in a nearby store just had each other arrested. One was threatening the other with a hammer. He claims the other had punched him on the nose.

We have a bathing beach here. We residents all have to buy stickers for our cars to get into the beach area.

This year they doubled the fee. "Improvements," they claim.

But our local paper runs a letter from an irate woman from which I quote as follows:

"I never saw the beach in such filthy condition, stones and debris making it impossible to bathe or sit down in comfort. All my friends are indiginant."

Yet, right next to this letter is another one:

"It was indeed a pleasure to see the excellent job the beach commission has accomplished," says the writer and congratulates the members on their fine job.

Peace Routines, 1951 Model

Oh for the days when a peace proposal was simple, direct and easily understandable! The era when the words "Let us have peace" didn't bring a suspicious look and a fast "I wonder what he can mean by that!" Today a peace proposition brings an immediate search for gimmicks, booby traps, short circuits, broken glass and rusty nails. It makes people almost as jumpy as war itself.

Through the ages a headline, "Peace Proposed" was logically followed by "War Near End; Armistice Called." Today the same headline brings "World Wary of Offer," "Diplomats Fear Trap," "Double Cross Seen," etc. The routine, sadly enough, has come to be this:

1.—Mr. Malik proposes peace.

2.—He takes to his bed from his own amazement.

3.—The world reads his proposal, staggers, falls into a chair, takes a bracer and wonders what's up

4.—Washington names a Commission to Keep Peace During Possible Peace Talks, a Board to Separate the Abusive Paragraphs from the Gracious Ones, if Any, in the Malik Proposal, and a Committee To See What's Up

5.—London names a Weeding Council to weed out all threats, snarls, invectives, slurs and insults from the peace proposal and to see if anything is left.

6.—Trygve Lie issues statement warning everybody to keep the kiddies off the streets, look under the bed and sleep with one eye open, as Russia has hinted it will cooperate in a peace move.

7.—A group of engineers reports "that the skyscraper home of the United Nations has developed several wide cracks and shifted 30 degrees off center, due to the Malik speech.

8.—The U. N. Good Offices Committee goes over the Malik address once more for barbed wire entanglements, mine fields, kidney punches, and hidden card tricks. It decides to put on 30 more analysts, word experts, interpreters and specialists in hidden meanings.

9.—The U. N. goes into a huddle and names a Committee To Take Steps against An Ambush.

10.—The Free World names an international board ao inquire into snags, pitfalls, low bridges, disappearing doves, bean balls and the use of spiked shoes in proposals for amity.

11.—Mr Malik insists he is 100 per cent sincere in a statement introducing 236 new invectives and 26 previously unused synonyms for "warwonger," "imperialistic dog" and "unscrupulous exploiter."

13.—Things begin to look pretty alarming on all fronts.

14.—It is discovered that when Mr. Malik and Red China use the word "peace" it is not peace, but "halibut sauce" spelled backwards.

Fay Mae Hallett Is Bride Of Edwin Miller Jr. In Wedding At Grace Church

In one of June's most elaborate weddings, Miss Fay Mae Hallett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur C. Hallett, of East Stroudsburg, RD 3, became the bride of Edwin Miller Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Miller Sr., of Bridgeview Inn, Delaware Water Gap, at 7 o'clock last night.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by Grace Church pastor, Rev. William F. Wunder before the candle-lit altar where altar flowers of white carnations, baby's breath and white chrysanthemum flowers had been placed. A white aisle runner, and white gladioli tied with white satin ribbon to the end of each pew made an effective background for the bridal procession. The chancel bouquets were of blue delphinium, white carnations and pompons.

Miss Gertrude Seguine, organist of the Lafayette Methodist church, Jersey City, N. J., presided at the console. Durrell Mader, tenor soloist, sang "Because," "I Love You Truly," and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin trimmed with lace, with an off-the-shoulder neckline filled with illusion. Her veil was held in place by a crown of seed pearls and rhinestones. She carried a white Bible surmounted by an orchid tied in streamers with miniature white rosebuds intertwined.

Mrs. Janice Drop, sister of the bride, was her matron of honor, and wore a gown of yellow shirred taffeta with an illusion yoke, and carried a fan of yellow roses and lavendar gladioli.

The bridesmaids, Mrs. Emma Wolbert and Mrs. Joyce Mosier, both sisters of the bridegroom wore gowns of lavendar lace and net, and carried fans of yellow roses.

There were three small flower girls, Nancy Joan Drop, Carol Jean Drop and Nan Eleanor Hallett, all in long gowns of white taffeta with flower crowns holding miniature veils, and they carried baskets of flowers.

James Williams was ring bearer, and John Williams and Chester Hallet Jr served as acolytes.

Chester W. Hallet Sr., brother of the bride, was best man, and the ushers were Jacob A. Wolbert and Norman W. Mosier, brothers-in-law of the bridegroom.

The couple knelt on a white satin-covered pillow before the altar during the wedding prayers.

A reception followed in the social rooms of the parish house which had been decorated with white wedding bells and streamers, flowers and a tiered wedding cake. There were about 150 guests.

The bride's mother received her guests in a dress of blue crepe and lace, with white accessories, while the bridegroom's mother wore a white print dress with white accessories. They both wore corsages of white roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller are now on a wedding trip through the Shenandoah Valley. For traveling the bride wore a street-length dress in aqua lace and crepe with navy accessories and an orchid corsage.

On their return they will reside at their new home on Franklin Hill, East Stroudsburg, RD 3.

The bride was graduated from East Stroudsburg High school in the class of 1950, and is employed at the Art Metal Co. Mr. Miller is employed at the Line Material Co.

Just Between Us

—By Bobby Westbrook

This business of getting children ready for camp gets more complicated every year, seems as though. There really should be a period of quarantine from the time you get their clothes all clean and the time they leave when you could confine them to the house and have them wear nothing but the jeans with the holes in the knees and the polo shirts that shrunk.

Instead of that, you just draw a big breath of relief at having finished ironing the last blouse they think they have to take, when they come with a whole washerful of things they've got dirty since the day before.

Cloudbursts and mud puddles don't help the situation either. Neither do unexpected hot dog roasts, trips down town for chocolate ice cream cones, or spaghetti for lunch.

Maybe other mothers manage better, but I have a feeling I'll still be ironing come six a.m. Monday morning when they leave, and will have to go running down the driveway after them with the bathing suits we had to put in the oven to dry.

Beyond that, I can't imagine what it will be like to have the phones free of teen-age chatter, the house uncluttered with baseball mitts, and their rooms staying straightened up for a whole week.

Jr. Crusaders Have Picnic Despite Rain

Bartonsville — Despite the showers on Wednesday night, the Junior Crusaders of St. John's Lutheran Sunday school held a picnic supper, but inside the parish house instead of on the parish house lawn.

The rain didn't dampen the enthusiasm of the baseball fans, either, who played a game outside after supper until halted by darkness.

A brief business meeting was conducted with Robert Field presiding. Plans were made for a hot dog roast the next regular meeting night, July 25. In event of rain it will be held July 26. Each person will bring hot dogs, but rolls, drinks and marshmallows will be donated by friends of the group.

Hymn singing was enjoyed with Mrs. Haviland Heller playing the piano accompaniment. John Frailey presented the Scripture lesson and Rev. John Bergstresser leading in prayer.

Miss Mildred Deacon, Bible club teacher, led the Bible study period, presenting a flano graph story in which she stressed Jesus Christ as the only door by which man may enter God's fold, rather than good works.

Kodacrome slides featuring church and Sunday school meetings and scenic veiws were shown by Haviland Heller.

Those attending were Rev. and Mrs. John Bergstresser and daughter Janice, Mr. and Mrs. Haviland Heller, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Field and sons, Robert, Thomas and John, Grace Labadie, Marian Butts, Teddy Eilber, John Frailey and Ronald Swink.

Household Hints

Some cooks like to use a piece of fine cotton cord for cutting hot Boston brown bread to serve with baked beans. Keep the string taut between your fingers for quick cutting with no crumbly edges.

Serve fresh apricots as a salad desert: Halve and pit, then fill the halves with cream cheese mixed with preserved ginger that's been finely cut. Place the filled apricot halves on watercress and pass the sour cream.

Next time you bake muffins give the family a surprise: Put a chunk of canned pineapple on top of the batter in each muffin cup, sprinkle with sugar, and then bake as usual.

Liver paste for sandwiches is easy to make at home, and liver is so nutritious it should be served often to families. To make the paste just mix ground cooked liver with a little melted butter or magarine, chili sauce to taste, finely grated union and salt and pepper.

Leftover ham (ground) may be mixed with leftover seasoned mashed potatoes and shaped into cakes, flour the cakes lightly and fry until heated through and lightly browned. A salad of greens plus thinly shaved carrot strips and olives tastes good with this.

Now that warm weather's here you'll be packing picnic lunches and carrying sandwiches. It's well to remember, however, that salad fillings of chicken, eggs, fish, or meat are not recommended for summertime carrying unless they can be kept cold.

Mr. And Mrs. Ira S. Price Celebrate Golden Wedding

Sand Hill Church Honors Couple At Bridal Shower

A surprise shower was given by the congregation of the Sand Hill Methodist church for their pastor, Rev. Charles Whittaker and his bride-to-be, Gloria Cocco shortly before their marriage.

Opening the doors of the church, they were met by the glare of flashlight bulbs as their pictures were taken. When their eyes cleared they could see that the church has been decorated with flowers and gifts from the congregation.

Refreshments and home-made ice cream were served after they had opened their gifts.

Those attending were: Mrs. Edna Predmore, Mrs. Addie Gunsaules, Mrs. Tannie Howey, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Van Why Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Luther Van Why Jr. and children, Timothy and Norman Van Why, Mrs. Blanche Van Why, Mrs. Josephine Messerel, Mrs. Mabel Hay, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Brink and daughter, Geraldine, Albert Schoonover, Mrs. Rosetta Halterman, Dora Ace, and the guests of honor.

They also received gifts from members and friends of the Sand Hill church who were unable to attend.

Here's a snack men like: Heap toasted hamburger rolls with canned beans, sprinkle with grated cheese and chopped bacon. Broil slowly, several inches from the source of heat, until the cheese is melted and the bacon crisp.

U. S. Spending To Exceed 68 Billions

Washington (AP) — Government spending will exceed $68,000,000,000 in the fiscal year beginning July 1, a Budget bureau official estimated yesterday, and may reach $90,000,000,000 in the succeeding year.

Elmer B. Staats, assistant director of the Bureau of the Budget, laid the astronomical figures before the Senate Finance committee. The committee is holding hearings on the administration's request for more than $10,000,000,000 in new taxes.

By far the biggest item in the budget is the amount to be spent for military preparedness, Staats reported. He said that even after the defense buildup is completed it may require $40,000,000,000 annually to keep the Defense department going.

He estimated that about half of this amount would be needed "merely to support a standing armed force of 3,500,000 men."

Staats' estimate of spending for the fiscal year 1952, beginning Sunday, was $68,400,000,000. President Truman's original budget estimate in January was $71,600,000,000.

Senator Taft (R-Ohio), a member of the finance committee, told newsmen he suspected the administration was seeking a big tax hike this year so it wouldn't have to ask for another one just before the 1952 elections. Taft emphasized it was only a suspicion.

The House has approved a bill for $7,200,000,000 in new taxes, including a 12½ per cent boost in income taxes. Sentiment in the Senate seemed to be to trim this figure somewhat.

One Democratic member of the committee who did not wish to be quoted by name predicted the tax bill would become law in September, with the new withholding rates on salaries and wages taking effect Oct. 1.

Brancato, No. 10 On Criminal List, Gives Up To FBI

San Francisco (AP) — Anthony Brancato, one of the FBI's "ten most wanted men," surrendered to agent Harry Kimball here yesterday.

Kimball declined to say why the hunted man gave himself up, other than to comment "it was getting pretty hot for him."

The FBI identified Brancato, 36, of Kansas City., Mo., as "a tough hoodlum who has been connected with illegal gambling enterprises for years."

Brancato was placed on the list of 10 most wanted men two days ago as a replacement for Henry Clay Tollett, an escapee from McNeil Island, Wash., who was shot to death by state police at Redding, Calif., June 3.

Truce Ends Walkout Of UAL Pilots

Chicago (AP)—A strike of pilots that halted service for 10 days on United Airlines—the nation's fourth largest passenger carriers—was ended yesterday by a truce.

The company and its 900 striking AFL pilots and co-pilots agreed at a pre-dawn conference to restore service while the National Mediation board tries for complete settlement.

"I don't think it will take too long," was the optimistic comment from Thomas E. Bickers, board secretary who worked out the truce agreement.

United normally carries 9,600 passengers, 100,000 pounds of airmail and 248,000 pounds of cargo daily. Its 131 transport planes fly 188,000 miles daily on 220 flights over the 13,250 mile system serving 82 points from coast to coast and from California to Hawaii.

UAL is surpassed only by American Airlines and the Pennsylvania and New York Central railroads as a passenger carrier.

President Truman called on the pilots six days ago to end their strike as "good American citizens."

Under the truce arrangement, however, the pilots, members of the AFL Air Line Pilots association, will refuse at this time to fly the company's new bigger and faster DC 6B transport planes.

Czechs Agree To Release Jet Pilots

Washington (AP) — Communist Czechoslovakia, yielding to a vigorous American protest, yesterday agreed to release the pilots of two U. S. jet fighter planes who made a forced landing behind the iron curtain three weeks ago.

The State department said the Czech Foreign office gave U. S. Ambassador Ellis O. Briggs a note promising to free the pilots and the planes. It did not say when.

The Czech note was in response to a protest filed by Briggs this week.

The two pilots are Lt. Luther G. Roland of Hummelstown, Pa., and Lt. Bjoern Johansen, a Norwegian training with the U. S. Air Force in Germany.

The State department said the pilots had been held incommunicado since they made an emergency landing near Prague, on June 8, while engaged in a training flight in the American occupation zone of Germany.

Meanwhile, Czech authorities have carried on an "investigation" and complained that the incident was another in a long series of American provocations.

Coincident with the State department announcement, the Czech government said it will bill the U. S. embassy in Prague for hangar space and other expenses involved in the detention of the two pilots.

The Czech statement also declared that Lt. Johansen will be returned directly to his own country because he announced "he does not wish to return to the Air Force of the United States nor to the American occupation zone in Germany."

UAL has had six of these $1,000,000 planes ready for service since April 29 but they never have been used in regular service.

A WATER PISTOL taken from grinning Daniel D'Alesandro, 26, as he is frisked by New York policemen, does not seem such a joke to them. The officer at right holds the weapon with which D'Alesandro allegedly tried to hold up a bank on a busy street. In the police chase which followed, he was captured under a five-and-ten store counter.

NBC To Film TV Shows For Movies

New York (AP)—National Broadcasting Co. disclosed yesterday that it will make feature-length motion pictures for theater display, starring the big network's top television performers.

Each film will be a roundup of highlights from one outstanding TV show of the past season, such as the Milton Berle, Jimmy Durante and Eddie Cantor programs.

NBC officials said video techniques will be used throughout in making the pictures, the only difference being that 35MM movie cameras will be substituted for TV cameras. Robert Montgomery is being "considered" as narrator for the films, the network added.

B-36s Reach England From Texas Nonstop

Lakenheath Air Base, Eng. (AP)—Three B-36s of the United States Air Force flew in from Texas yesterday on a 5,000-mile non-stop flight—half the distance they can carry the atom bomb.

The 10-engine global bombers came here from Carswell Air Force base near Ft. Worth "on a purely routine training flight," a U. S. Third Air Force officer said. The first plane set down here 22¼ hours after leaving Texas Thursday.

The flight is the second time the 180-ton heavies have appeared over Britain. They are equipped with six regular and four jet engines. Six B-36s made the round trip from Carswell to Lakenheath last January. On that trip, the bombers stopped at Limeston Air Force base in Maine coming over and returned non-stop.

Life of Riley

By JIM RILEY
Sports Editor

Home runs have been hit in baseball parks throughout the nation time after time, but the one slammed by Dick Schaller at Tatamy probably is the only one that has ever separated an outfielder from his pants. The entire incident occurred when Schaller sent the ball over the short right field fence, but close enough to enable Tatamys John Poltzer to make a gallant try for the dropping ball. Poltzer tumbled backward over the low snow fence, missed the ball but caught his pants on the top of the fence and ripped them badly.

Players gathered around the pantless Poltzer, while some substitute was forced to give up his trousers and they were in turn raced out to Poltzer in right field, where he dressed behind his protective screen of players and the game continued. Although he finished the contest in a two-tone uniform, Poltzer remained one of the top players on the Tatamy roster. Russell Redfern and Nelson Redfern, both of whom opened the present Blue Mountain League campaign with Tatamy, are now members of the Johnsonville club.

Ira "Curt" Curtis, former hurler with Nazareth, North Atlantic League, did the pitching for Tatamy on Thursday, but the temperamental right hander has lost much of the effectiveness that made him one of the best chuckers during the three years he worked in the class "D" NAL. However, Curtis still displays the same temper that kept him in hot water with players, fans and officials alike, all through his professional diamond career. Curtis still continues to keep the batters loose with his famous duster.

Rain washed out the baseball school sponsored by the Philadelphia Phillies at Gordon Giffels field yesterday, but the final session will be held on the same field today, from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. Twenty-nine players were enrolled at yesterday's session, but none of them got an opportunity to show their stuff as the W. Main St. ball yard was flooded with water after the morning rain. Of the 29 on the school roster, 14 were from the local area.

The local group included Ray Steele, Bushkill; Al Schoch, Mt. Pocono; Stan "Lefty" Kolodzey, Tobyhanna; Dewey Martling, East Stroudsburg; Forrest Mervine, Stroudsburg; Harvey Houser, Mt. Bethel; Dick Schmidt, Saylorsburg; Gordon Souders, Gilbert; Bill Metzgar, Stroudsburg; Gabriel Kolcun, East Stroudsburg; Ed. Reese, Gilbert; Harold Frace, Bangor; Ray Masters, Bangor; Anthony Falcone, Bangor. There undoubtedly will be an even larger turnout of local players at the school's final session today.

A total of 144 boys, from both the East Stroudsburg and Stroudsburg Little Leagues, will be the guests of the Philadelphia Phillies, when the defending National League champs take on the Pittsburgh Pirates, at Shibe Park, on Saturday, July 14. The 25 adults accompanying the group will be admitted for a reduced rate. This treat was made possible between the cooperation of Marty Baldwin, the Pocono Mountains Chamber of Commerce, and the Phillies.

Andy Clark, park office manager for the Phils, is a close friend of Tom Robinson, owner of Twin Pine Ranch, Snydersville. Ed. Kobesky, manager of the Batavia entry in the class "D" Pony League, was ejected from a game against Olean on Thursday night and his team was forced to forfeit its contest to Olean, 9-0. Kobesky was to have replaced catcher Dick Petro, who suffered a leg injury, before the pilot became involved in an argument with umpire Bob Burns. Left without a receiver, Batavia had to throw in the sponge.

Batavia's regular catchers, Ray Jamilkowski and Bob Radley,, are on a two-weeks tour of duty with the National Guard. Kobesky is known in Monroe County, having brought his Batavia club to Gordon Giffels field annually for pre-season exhibition games with the Stroudsburg Poconos in recent years. Gordon Coy has given up his position as co-manager of the Peters-Arnold-Howell entry in the East Stroudsburg Little League to assist C. A. "Phiz" Nauman, league president, with administrative duties.

The East Stroudsburg circuit is scheduled to hold a Tag Day early in July, in an effort to raise money to finish the Little League stadium being built. A ward campaign is already in motion. The circuit is anxious to raise an additional $2,000, so that the new field may be completed as soon as possible. The new field will feature bleachers, dugouts and everything that goes with the modern game of baseball. The circuit is playing all its games at the East Stroudsburg Playground until such time as the new diamond is completed.

Pocono A. C. Host To East Bangor Tomorrow

Steele To Hurl For League-Leader

Rain forced postponement of last night's game between Pocono A.C. and Stockertown at Gordon Giffels field, but the charges of Manager John Schoonover are hopeful of at least protecting their half-game lead in the Blue Mountain league standings when East Bangor makes an appearance on the same field tomorrow at 2 p.m.

Ray Steele, ace of the Pocono A.C. staff, will be called upon to do the pitching for the league-leader, and will face one of the hardest hitting teams in the circuit when he toes the rubber against the third place organization, which at the present time is only one-half game off the pace. The game starts at 2 p.m.

Closely Matched

In two previous meetings each team has won a game and both will be anxious to break their individual deadlock.

The remainder of tomorrow's schedule will feature Tatamy at West Bangor, Portland at Stockertown and Johnsonville at Roseto. Roseto, only one-half game behind Pocono A.C., will be seeking to move back into the number one spot by trouncing the cellar-dwellers.

Stockertown will make up a rained out contest at Tatamy on Tuesday, at 6:15 p.m., while the circuit presents a full schedule on the Fourth of July.

Wednesday's slate will feature West Bangor at Pocono A.C., East Bangor at Tatamy, Portland at Stockertown and Johnsonville at Roseto. All games will begin at 2:30 p.m.

NegroBaseball Returns To Slate Belt

Bangor — Colored baseball's greatest attraction, the nationally famous Indianapolis Clowns, appears in the Lehigh Valley for the first time next Thursday night facing Ed Bolden's Philadelphia Stars under the arcs here at Memorial Park in a regular Negro American League contest.

Latest official statistics reveal that the Clowns, current eastern division leaders and last season's sectional champions, pace the circuit in hitting with a .328 average as well as in fielding with a .965 mark and also boast several members who are setting the tempo in individual effort.

Eight front line performers, headed by Erwin Ford's spectacular .426 percentage, are wacking the ball at better than a .300 clip. Len Pigg, hitting .382; Nat Peoples, with .381; Len Williams, with .347; Sherry Brewer, with .316; Ray Neil, with .303; Lincoln Boyd, with .302; and Henry "Speed" Merchant with .391, comprise the others in this charmed circle.

Power

First baseman Williams, at last report, also was marshalling the loop in home runs with a total of 11, and in RBI and runs scored with 35 and 36 respectively, while fleet-footed Merchant is ahead in triples with an even dozen and in stolen bases, having pilfered a score.

Peoples is on top in two-baggers with 13 and the league pitching is commanded by Tugerson, who sports a 6-0 record, which is followed closely by that of his mate, Harry Butts, who has racked up five straight.

The Clowns' tremendous offensive power must be rated with some of the great former clubs of Negro baseball, the Homestead Grays and the Pittsburgh Crawfords, who, before disbanding were considered to have the greatest hitting combinations in the annals of the colored game.

Fly Steals Attention From PGA Golfers

Oakmont, Pa., (AP) — The defending champion, medalist and four former titlists were swept from the professional golfers association tournament yesterday but these rocky incidents were completely overshadowed by the case of the curious fly.

The vagrant insect — variously described as a tiny butterfly or a gnat — figured in the stormy second round match between Sam Snead and Marty Furgol which was won by Snead with a birdie three on the twenty-first hole.

The match, followed by a yelling throng of some 5,000, was finished about dusk after a series of huddles by the brains of the PGA.

Furgol, 32-year-old Lemont, Ill., professional, protested on the fourteenth green that Snead violated a rule when he stooped down to blow an insect off his ball.

Snead contended he didn't touch or clean the pellet and thus had broken no regulations.

When it was impossible to get a ruling immediately, Furgol continued under protest and matched the tempestuous slammer from White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., stroke for stroke up to the eighteenth where they finished all square.

No Protest

Then Furgol elbowed from the green into the PGA headquarters where all the higher brass went into a consultation.

While they were deliberating — and while Snead was out on the nineteenth threatening to claim the match by default — Furgol entered the session and said he was withdrawing his protest.

The PGA bigwigs heaved a huge sigh of relief and announced a decision on the matter may be announced later.

Furgol discovered that he was only prolonging the agony for, after halving the first two extra holes in birdies and pars, Snead laced a beautiful iron shot to within six feet of the pin on the 387-yard twenty-first and closed out the match right there.

Snead thus was left one of the few giants remaining in the field of 16 after two full rounds of eliminations, from sunup to sundown on the 6,882-yard, par 72 Oakmont course.

Other favorites to prevail included Lloyd Mangrum of Niles, Ill., the leading money winner and top choice for the title; Jim Ferrier, the sure-putting former Australian; huge Vic Ghezzi of Inwood, N. Y., champion in 1941. Ferrier won the title in 1947.

Nine extra hole matches were played during the long, dreary day with one of them eliminating Chandler Harper of Portsmouth, Va., who won the PGA crown a year ago at Columbus' Scioto club.

The slender Virginian, fretting with stomach and club-swinging troubles, was ushered to the sidelines by Jim Turnesa of Briarcliff, N. Y., who rallied to square the match on the eighteenth and then won it with a 25-foot, over-hill putt on the twenty-third.

Chitwood Show Postponed At Delaware Valley Track; Stock Cars Return To Action Tomorrow

Joie Chitwood's Auto Daredevils were forced to postpone last night's scheduled performance at the Delaware Valley Speedway due to the heavy late afternoon rains that made the track virtually impossible for the stuntmen to present their entire routine of 27 events.

Promoter Lou Williams and Charles "Buddy" Wagner, Chitwood unit manager, decided to re-schedule the entire performance for next Thursday night, at 8:30. In the event of rain next week, arrangements have been made to hold the show over until the follow night, Friday.

The entire troupe of stuntmen, including Christie "Snooks" Wentzel, sensational Reading daredevil, who will attempt a world's record leap, ramp-to-ramp, in a new 1951 Ford stock sedan when the show returns; and Frank "Frankenstein" Frakes, so-called "Human Bomb" who blasts himself with nine sticks of dynamite while encased in a coffin-like structure, were on hand for last night's performance.

The Chitwood daredevils travelled here from Albany, N. Y.; where they performed before a capacity crowd of 7,000 spectators on Thursday night.

However, the newly constructed track near the East Stroudsburg-Stroudsburg airport will feature its regular Sunday stock car show tomorrow, with a total of 50 entries, including many of the top drivers in Monroe County and surrounding area slated to battle for the top prize.

The first qualifying heat is listed for 2:00 p.m.

Yanks Gain Nod Over Bosox On Strength Of DiMaggio's Eighth Inning Hit Scoring Rizzuto

New York (AP)—Joe DiMaggio's eighth inning double scored Phil Rizzuto with the winning run last night as the New York Yankees defeated the Boston Red Sox, 2-1, behind Vic Raschi's three-hit pitching. It was that righthanded ace's twelfth win against four losses.

The Yanks collected seven hits off lefty Maury McDermott and broke a 1-1 tie in the fifth when "Hank" Bauer lashed a two-bagger into left field and countered on Gil McDougald's single in that same locality.

Lone Score

Two of the three Boston safeties against Raschi came in the fourth, which Johnny Pesky opened with a single to right. After Billy Goodman grounded out, Ted Williams singled in Pesky for the lone Boston counter.

The only other hit gave up by Raschi was a McDermott single with two out in the fifth. But catcher Yogi Berra immediately picked McDermott off first with a lightning throw to Johnny Mize.

Ailing Lemon Defeats Tigers

Cleveland (AP) — Bob Lemon pitched the Cleveland Indians to a 4-1 win over Detroit last night despite an abscessed tooth and an upset stomach.

The tooth was lanced and packed earlier in the day, but he became sick to his stomach and had to call time out in the sixth inning after Dick Kryhoski and Hoot Evers had singled and Aaron Robinson had walked, loading the bases.

Only Run

Lemon walked Charlie Keller after he returned to the mound, forcing in the Tigers' only score. After that he was never in serious trouble in registering his eighth win against six losses.

The Tribe got all of its runs in the fourth on two doubles, a single, a passed ball, and an error and a walk. Larry Doby doubled home Bob Avila who walked. Johnny Lipon then fumbled Luke Easter's grounder, sending Doby to third from where he scored on the passed ball. Harry Simpson doubled in Easter and then scored himself on Jim Hegan's single.

It was the third straight win for Lemon over Detroit and the third straight he had allowed the Tigers only one run.

Cleveland has beaten the Tigers seven times in a row. For Detroit's Dizzy Trout it was the tenth loss against three wins.

Laresen Shows Ability At Wimbledon

Wimbledon (AP)—Artful Art Laresen, the latest racquet wizard from California, continued yesterday to demonstrate to Wimbledon fans how he won last year's American title as he turned back another good player with a minimum of effort to reach the quarter-final round of the All-England championships.

The wiry little lefthander, casually mixing soft lobs with pinpoint drives into the corners, again kept complete control of the court in subduing Torsten Johannsson of Sweden's Davis Cup team, 6-3, 7-5, 6-4.

Stars

Three other international stars —Frank Sedgman and Ken McGregor of Australia and Eric Sturgess, the steady South African— accompanied the American champion into the round of eight. The remaining fourth round matches, three of them involving Americans, are scheduled today.

McGregor was the only one of yesterday's winners to drop a set. He eliminated Paul Remy of France, 6-4, 3-6, 6-3, 64. Sedgman, the number one seed, needed less than an hour to crush Fausto Gardini, the young Italian who Thursday upset Gardnar Mulloy of Miami. The one-sided scores were 6-0, 6-2, 6-1.

Sturgess, who defeated Sedgman in last week's London championships at Queen's Club brushed aside Bernard Destremau of France, 6-2, 6-3, 6-2.

America's ball-pounding women stars continued to dominate their field as the first week of the tennis fortnight neared its end without a single casualty among the seven seeded players from across the water.

No Little League Play

Rain and wet grounds forced postponement of last night's East Stroudsburg Little League game between the National Bank and Methodists, listed for the East Stroudsburg Payground. No date has been set for making up the contest.

Mat Show Postponed

Tafton — Wrestling matches scheduled to be held here at Billy Soose's arena were postponed last night due to rain which fell over the area late yesterday. No new date has been set for the matches at this Lake Wallenpaupack resort.

Junior Legion Teams To Play On Monday

Opener

The first tussle, listed for 6, will feature the Martocci-Capobianco American Legion Post of Roseto against the George N. Kemp American Legion Post of E. Stroudsburg. It will be the first meeting of the year between the two junior legion foes, although an earlier scheduled contest was washed off the books by rain.

Action in the first donkey game of the season in Monroe county is slated for 8:30 at the W. Main St. field.

A large crowd is expected to be on hand when the two service organizations feature the first doubleheader of its kind to be held in Monroe county.

Golf Deadline Near

Cubs Tie Cardinals

St. Louis (AP) — The Chicago Cubs and the St. Louis Cardinals played to a 6-6 tie game last night, the contest being called at the end of nine innings to permit the Cubs to catch a train for Cincinnati. The game will be replayed at a date to be announced later.

Phils Score In Ninth Frame To Take Measure Of Dodgers

Brooklyn (AP)—Ralph Caballero's ninth-inning triple and a two-run homer by Del Wilber in the fifth gave Philadelphia a 3-2 win over Brooklyn last night, clipping the Dodgers lead to four and one-half games. Robin Roberts held the Brooks to five hits in hanging up his ninth victory.

The only Dodger runs came on homers by Jackie Robinson in the second and "Duke" Snider in the ninth. Robinson's tenth of the season came on Roberts' first pitch in the second.

Wilber hammered his second homer of the season off loser Erv Palica after Tommy Brown, an ex-Dodger, opened the fifth with a single.

Pep Talk

The Phils, who listened to a pep talk from Manager Eddie Sawyer yesterday, nailed it down with one in the ninth. Willie Jones singled. Then with one out Caballero tripled to the exit gate in right center, scoring Jones.

Snider's sixteenth homer came with one out and nobody on in the ninth. Roberts then settled down to retire the next two hitters.

The Brooks' fifth loss in their last six games enabled the second place New York Giants, rained out at Boston, to gain a half game in the National League race.

He was reported dead upon arrival at St. Benedict's Hospital at 8:15 p.m.

White Sox Hold Half-Game Lead

Chicago (AP)—The Chicago White Sox last night clung to their precious one half game lead in the American League by walloping the St. Louis Browns, 10-3, in the first of a four game series.

The White Sox sent 18 batters to the plate in the first two innings to score eight runs and rout pitchers Tommy Byrne and Jimmy Suchecki.

Pleased Crowd

A delighted crowd of 23,352 witnessed Chicago's forty-third victory in 66 games to remain in front of the New York Yankees. It was the White Sox seventh triumpn over the Browns in eight games this season.

Orestes Minoso, leading hitter in the American League, paced Chicago's 13-hit attack with a double and two singles in lifting his average to .367.

Howard Judson went the distance for Chicago to establish a 3-0 record.

A's Sweep Pair From Senators

Philadelphia (AP) — Philadelphia advanced to within a half-game of sixth place Washington by dumping the Senators twice last night, 3-2 and 11-5.

Home runs by Eddie Joost and Gus Zernial featured the first game victory and a seven run seventh uprising decided the nightcap. Joose and Lou Klein both homered in the second game, giving the former 12 for the year. Zernial's wallop was his 17th of the season.

Big Inning

Washington scored four times in the second inning of the afterpiece as starter Alex Kellner walked Mickey Grasso with the bags loaded to force in one tally. Then Eddie Yost cleaned the sacks with a double.

Joost's twelfth round tripper of the year came after a double by Kellner in Philadelphia's third. The Senators tallied once more in the sixth on Mickey Vernon's double and Sam Dente's single.

Pocono Lake Quits League

Lack Of Players Cited As Reason

Tobyhanna — Pocono Lake has withdrawn from the Pocono Mountain league for the remainder of the season, it was announced here last night by Harold Kresge, president of the circuit. The reason for Pocono Lake's decision to quit the league was given as the lack of players on the club's roster.

The Pocono Lake contingent has had trouble fielding a team on several occasions this year, being forced to forfeit two games and on one occasion borrowed four players from Reeders, in order to take part in the first contest of the campaign.

Kresge was informed last night that Pocono Lake would be unable to meet further commitments this season and the league president ruled that all teams scheduled to play Pocono Lake would draw byes for the remainder of the campaign.

A meeting will be held at a later date to decide on a manner in which to handle the games as far as the standings are concerned.

Tomorrow's schedule will feature Barrett at home with Analomink providing the opposition. The second contest on the list finds Lake Harmony moving into the home domain of undefeated Kunkletown, a team that will be searching for its eighth straight victory.

Schedule

The third contest on the agenda will find Saylorsburg playing at Reeders while Pocono Lake's meeting with Tobyhanna is now off.

Last but far from least, tomorrow's schedule will find Tannersville tangling with West End A.C. at Gilbert.

Kunkletown's invasion of Saylorsburg will feature the Fourth of July schedule, while Tannersville plays at Barrett and Analomink is listed to play Tobyhanna, while Lake Harmony meets West End A.C. on the latter's home field.

Pocono Lake's scheduled clash with Reeders is now off the books.

Pirates Recall Infielder

Pittsburgh (AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates yesterday recalled second baseman Monty Basgall from Indianapolis of the American Association. Basgall, 29, was optioned by the Bucs to Indianapolis May 16.

Sunrise Speedway Institutes New Policy Of Paying Expenses To First Twenty On Track

Blakeslee — Pocono Sunrise Speedway will feature a double-header in stock car racing during the next few days, presenting a regular Sunday program tomorrow then coming up with a gala Fourth of July card on Wednesday. Both programs will get underway with the drop of starter Ed Perluke's green flag for the opening of the first qualifying heat, at 2:30 p. m.

The first 20 cars making an appearance at the Sunrise Speedway each race day will receive guaranteed expenses, if they aren't fortunate enough to be one of the prize winners. The programs are open to all qualified stock cars and drivers that wish to participate.

Policy

Track director George Perluke's policy of open competition will bring together some of the top stock car jockeys in the east on this half-mile oval with the banked turns.

Headlining the speed program for tomorrow will be Joe Cryan, Oxford, N. J., who is only speedster able to chalk up two feature-event victories at the Blakeslee oval this season. Lew Lindbuechler, Mountain Top; Mike Muffley, Lehighton; Bob Ferdinand, Drums; Don Natt, Sugarloaf; Joe Mushlitz, Bethlehem, and Grant Moulthrop, Lehighton, will be a few of the top stars in tomorrow's shows.

Rain Hinders Local School

Rain washed out yesterday's baseball school, sponsored by the Philadelphia Phillies, at Gordon Giffels field, after 29 hopeful diamond stars had registered for the second day's session.

The school, scheduled to be a three-day affair, will hold its final session today, from 10 a. m. to 1 p. m.

Staff

Bill "Cy" Morgan, veteran scout for the Phillies, is in charge of the school and is being assisted by Jack Kist, East Stroudsburg High diamond coach; Jerry Stulgaitis, High baseball mentor, and Marty Baldwin, local sportsman.

Today's session will be open to any boy, anywhere as long as he is between 16 and 23 years-of-age.

Ohio State Pair Reaches Final

Columbus, O., (AP) — Ohio State's number one and two golfer, Tom Nieporte and Don Johnson, yesterday shot their way into the National Collegiate Golf championship finals.

Nieporte, OSU's number one man, was deadly with his approach shots as he eliminated Buster Reed of North Texas State, two up. Jonnson, who was sworn into the Air Force this morning, put out his semi-final opponent — Notre Dame's Tom Matey, two and one.

Action

Nieporte and Johnson tee off in the 36-hole finals at 9 a. m. today in what is believed to be the first NCAA championship match between two opponents from the same school.

Your Horoscope Today

By FRANCIS DRAKE

SATURDAY, JUNE 30, 1951

March 21 to April 20 (Aries)—An unusual planetary setup favoring unusual yet sound undertakings, at same time urging proper caution not to exceed your capacity nor spend beyond means. Interesting day.

April 21 to May 20 (Taurus)—You could find it profitable now to add improved methods and equipment to better and speed production, but do be mindful of financial risks. Dare to venture in fields which offer true benefits.

May 21 to June 21 (Gemini)—Day should be good for travel for business or government interests, for seeking and granting favors IF they are earned. All sound interests okayed but do be sensibly careful, moderate.

July 22 to July 23 (Cancer)—Favorable for essential changes, to improve your status or quality of your output, also for general improvements. But some aspects today also stress need for investigation in what you do.

July 24 to August 22 (Leo)—Your Sun and Uranus both now augur for new benefits, pleasant news, or maybe surprises for Leoites, especially if you rate them. Be considerate of others less favored today.

August 23 to September 22 (Virgo)—Mercury stresses extra care in written matters, important decisions. Bright ideas may not be plentiful, nor those that are accepted, but keep cheerfully on, you won't miss.

September 23 to October 23 (Libra)—Day may not satisfy all personal desires but are these always for our ultimate good? Moderation and some extra care about details should keep you on profitable road. Rest, recreate, too.

October 24 to November 22 (Scorpio)—In your free time today, get needed rest and some healthy recreation. If steady work is on your program, do it without worry or strain. System will help make everything easier.

November 23 to December 22 (Sagittarius)—On whole friendly aspects for wholesome matters and for new (if useful) and unique activities that will benefit some worthy undertaking, people, government. But care in general!

December 23 to January 21 (Capricorn)—Top gains are for loyalty, sincerity and justifiable ambition. These assets used rightly increase popularity, aid one's income, help everyone. Be your true self and gain.

January 22 to February 20 (Aquarius)—You have favorable rays from your Uranus which can be most encouraging if you employ your talents and capability as you should. No extremes, but do be soundly original, alert.

February 21 to March 20 (Pisces)—Extra caution stressed in matters strictly confidential; handling chemicals, oils, beverages, all liquids. Creative and useful inventions and improvements highly sponsored and needed.

YOU BORN TODAY have many and varied gifts which should be developed daily. Use these well for your advancement, to gain both spiritual and temporal benefits. Study to reach the heights; be amenable to sound suggestions, helpful advice. We can all learn and should be good listeners if we wish also to be heard. You have an innate gift for interesting conversation, for entertaining people. Little children and old folks like you—if living true to your best qualities and heeding God's laws, you are an esteemed, enthusiastic citizen. Local Lions Return From Convention

Lions and ladies of the local area returned yesterday from the international convention held in Atlantic City with a record gathering of 50,000 men and women in attendance.

In the local party were District Governor and Mrs. Elton Hall, President William P. Deering, Alternate Milton Demetriou, wife and daughter of Stroudsburg; Deputy District Governor Sidney Effross, President and Mrs. Bert Transue, Portland; President and Mrs. Harry J. Drennan, Barrett; President and Mrs. Ralph Ackerman, East Bangor.

The convention, which had been highlighted by the brilliant international parade on Monday, came to a climax Thursday night with the "international review" held at Convention hall. The international family of Lionism, including officers and their ladies were grouped in a section of the balcony, where they were spotlighted and introduced.

In the same auditorium yesterday, Montgomery Nute of Kennett Square, Pa., destined by Pennsylvania Lions to ultimately fill the presidential chair was elected third vice president and given a great ovation.

The supreme spot in Lionism went to First Vice President Harold P. Nutter of Camden, N.J., who succeeded President H. C. Petry Jr. of Carrizo Springs, Texas. When his election was announced, the auditorium was invaded by New Jersey bands and delegates, who headed a tremendous procession.

The convention next year will be held in Mexico City. Mexican, Central America and South American Lionism had prominent roles in this year's convention.

At the final session all the new district governors, including Elton Hall of Stroudsburg, were introduced to International Lionism.

Negro Gets Reprieve At Eleventh Hour

New Orleans (AP)— A U. S. Supreme court mandate yesterday halted the execution of Paul Washington, 25-year-old Negro, one hour and 20 minutes before he was scheduled to die for the rape of a white woman.

At the time, Washington, shaved and shorn for his date with Louisiana's portable electric chair, sat moodily in his cell of the Jefferson parish (county) jail at Gretna, across the Mississippi river from New Orleans.

He had eaten his last meal there, a few feet from the spot where the electric chair was set up yesterday in readiness for the execution.

When told that U. S. Supreme Court Justice Douglas had granted him a stay of execution, Washington merely smiled and said nothing, jail attaches reported.

Washington had been scheduled to die between noon and 3 p. m. (CST). It is customary in Louisiana to conduct executions as soon as possible after noon. It was 10:40 a. m. (CST) when word of the execution stay reached the jail.

Douglas granted the stay in Washington after one of his colleagues, Justice Burton refused to act late last night.

The stay will be effective until the Supreme court at its next term beginning Oct. 1 acts finally on Washington's case.

Washington's attorney contended the Negro was not properly represented at his trial on the rape charge, that he had been illegally arraigned and that confessions were forced from him.

OPS Approves Increase In Milk Prices

Beginning Sunday, the price of milk in Monroe county and other parts of the Allentown (Lehigh) milk marketing area will be 22 cents a quart to consumers.

The Office of Price Stabilization yesterday approved State Milk Control commission orders boosting the price of milk one cent a quart in five eastern Pennsylvania areas—Harrisburg, Lancaster, Allentown, Reading and York—and one-half cent more in Philadelphia and its suburban area.

Approval by the OPS came as the Federal price control setup was hotly debated in Congress.

Chairman H. N. Cobb of the Milk commission said the approval made only one change in the commission's price order. The OPS asked that the price of skim milk in Philadelphia be decreased by one-eighth of a cent a quart. The State agency agreed.

In addition to setting the retail price at 22 cents a quart, the order provides payment of $5.85 a hundredweight (46½ quarts) for producers in the Lehigh marketing area.

Young People Seek Funds For Institute

The young people of the youth fellowship groups of the East Stroudsburg Methodist church continue in their efforts to reach their goal to pay more than half the expense for 25 of their group to attend a week on top of Bush mountain, on the grounds of the Pocono Plateau Christian association.

This week of "Pocono institute" has become a tradition in the church, and although many of the young people cannot attend because of their employment this summer, nonetheless everyone of them lend a hand to raise the funds which sends a fine representative group for the week of July 21 to 28.

Tonight they have planned an "outdoor festival" on the lawn located between the church and parsonage. This is similar to the former "ice cream socials" except that they have expanded and will serve hot dogs, punch, cake and pie alamode, in addition to the traditional ice cream. This event will begin at 7 p.m. and will continue until sold out.

In the event of inclement weather the festival will be transferred to the dining room of the church.

Joseph Small Delegate To Elks Sessions

Joseph H. Small, exalted ruler of East Stroudsburg lodge, 319, BPO Elks, leaves this morning for Chicago as the delegate to the 87th grand lodge sessions to be held in that city July 2 through July 5. He will be accompanied by Fred Rhodes, member of the local unit.

Over 50,000 delegates and visitors are expected to attend the convention. Elks from the 48 states and such far-away places as Hawaii, Porto Rico, Alaska, Guam, and the Canal Zone will be on hand.

The local delegates will attend a series of meetings of the grand lodge which include the election of the new grand lodge officers. In addition, Elks lodges from all over America will participate in numerous events including trap and skeet shooting, band and instrumental, drill team contests, and glee club and barber shop quartet song fests.

Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson of Illinois and Mayor Martin H. Kennelly of Chicago will be on hand to greet the delegates. Every major hotel in the Windy City has been taken over by the Elks for the five-day session and great hotel lobbies, in effect, will resemble Elks club quarters.

County Girls To Attend FHA Convention

A group of 26 Pennsylvania high school girls—all members of Future Homemakers of America chapters in school throughout the State—will attend the annual FHA convention at East Lansing, Mich. next week under the direction of Miss Miriam Lark, the FHA's regional adviser and supervisor of home economics in Monroe, Carbon and Northampton county schools.

Two of the girls will be Faye Griffith and Betty Brotzman, of Kresgeville, who are sophomores at the Polk Township High school there.

The girls will leave tomorrow for Harrisburg where they will meet another part of the contingent before being joined by the western Pennsylvania delegation at East Liberty.

Five adviser-teachers will accompany the group of 23.

According to Miss Lark, the first overnight stop will be made at Ashland, O., approximately 343 miles west of Harrisburg. The girls will travel by chartered bus, and are scheduled to arrive in East Lansing, seat of Michigan State College, Sunday night.

The conference will open Monday morning and continue through next Friday.

The Pennsylvania delegation will be headed by Rowene Whalen, new State president who will assume her duties with the opening of school next September. She is a resident of Burgettstown RD 1 in Washington county, Miss Lark said.

Patriotic Service To Be Conducted

Mount Pocono — The Summer services in the Hooman Memorial church, Montenesqua trail, will begin with a patriotic service Sunday morning. Rev. William H. Ford, D.D., who succeeded the late Dr. Lewis Mudge in 1945, will be in charge of the services.

Members of patriotic orders, veterans of the late wars are invited to the celebration of the 175th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence. A patriotic address will be delivered by Bickley Burns Wilgus of Philadelphia.

Since the beginning of the services in the Hooman Memorial church, the offerings left on plates in the vestibule have been distributed to local charities. A letter from the secretary of the Pocono Mountains Volunteer Fire Co. contains the following: "Raising money in any community is often a problem, but it is people like yourself who always make the worthwhile projects come true."

Church Lists Activities

The Youth Fellowship will meet Monday at 7:30 p. m. at the church. Topic for discussion will be "Begin With the Bible." Mrs. Ulmer will be leader.

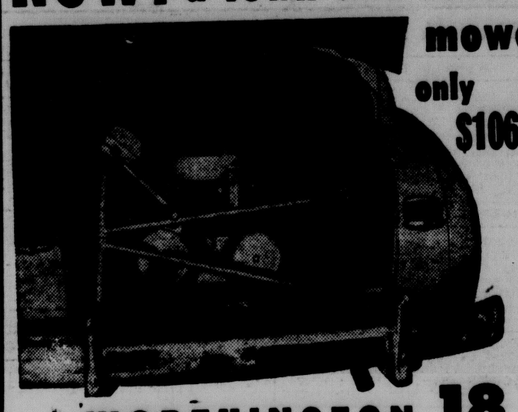

On Tuesday night, a swimming party and 'doggy' roast will be held at the lake.
